ADJOURNMENT SINE DIE.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Wednesday, Sept. 2.

At 11 o'clock this forenoon Judge Low, Chairman of the State Committee, called the Convention to order, remarking that the last State Convention had adopted a resolution providing that the body of the Convention should appoint a temporary Chairman.

Mr. Opdyke moved that the Convention take a recess until 2 o'clock. He made the motion in the hope that a longer and fuller conference among the delegations would result in more pleasant and harmonious action. He made the motion at the suggestion of many prominent members of the Convention. There never was a period when harmonious action was more necessary than now, and therefore he sincerely hoped the motion would prevail.

Mr. Raymond seconded the motion, concurring fully in the wisdom and policy of preliminary conferences by the different delegations, to which the gentleman who made the motion had alluded.

The question was then put and carried, there being but few votes in the negative.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

At 2 P. M., Mr. Low again called the Convention to order.

Mr. Raymond moved that Ward Hunt, of Oneida County, be appointed temporary Chairman. [Applause.]

Mr. S. H. Hammond, of Jefferson County, said he should vote for Ward Hunt because he believed him to be an upright, capable and loyal man, and not because he had been selected for the place by a Committee. He asked whether a permanent President had also been selected. It had been intimated that the Committees for the Convention have also been selected by this Committee, all the members of which are not Delegates to this Convention.

Cries of "Question," "Question," "Question."

Mr. Raymond said, that in making the motion, he had acted of his own free will. In his efforts to effect an organization of this Convention, he had conferred with prominent members of the party in this City, whether delegates or not. He knew of no Committee that had either this question or that of the Committees in charge. [Applause.]

The motion of Mr. Raymond prevailed.

Judge Folger, of Ontario County, and George W. Schuyler, of Tompkins County, were appointed a Committee to conduct Mr. Hunt to the chair.

ADDRESS OF THE TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN.

Mr. Hunt's appearance on the platform was greeted with applause. He addressed the Convention briefly. The conspiracy against the Government he regarded as about closed. The rebellion was near its end. The thousands who have died for their country will not have died in vain, if the result is the overthrow and punishment of the leaders of this rebellion, and the establishment on this continent of a united people, under one Constitution. No man at this day can fully comprehend the efforts that have been made to save the Union, but all can comprehend the glories of Gettysburgh, Vicksburgh and Port Hudson. The rebel armies are demoralized, and nearly destroyed; and what the State of New-York now needs, is the political success of the Union party, as a demonstration to the Administration and the people that we appreciate the efforts made to save the country. He reminded the Convention that it was its duty to nominate a ticket composed of loyal, true-hearted men—a ticket that will meet the approval of the people, and convince the Administration that New-York appreciates the gigantic efforts it has put forth in our common cause.

On motion of Ralph Lathrop, of Albany, Mr. Stivers of Orange, Mr. Archer of Wayne, and Theodore Brown of Chautauque, were appointed Secretaries.

The roll of Delegates was then called, when it appeared that the Sixth, Ninth, Tenth, Twelfth, Thirteenth and Sixteenth Districts of New-York and Putnam County were contested.

COMMITTEE ON CONTESTED SEATS.

Mr. Beard, of Kings County, moved that the Chair appoint a Committee on Contested Seats.

The motion was carred and the following Committee appointed:

Waldo Hutchings, John Keyser, Charles Jones, O. G. Beard, John Lyon, H. J. Hastings, James Reddington, Charles Rockwell, John C. Churchill, James McQuade, E. H. Prindle, B. R. Johnson, John Wiley, C. H. Thompson, A. G. Rice and Harry Wilber.

Mr. Hutchings, of New-York, moved that the delegates from the several judicial districts report the names of three persons as members of the State Committee, and report the same to the Convention.

Mr. Raymond opposed the motion, as belonging to the Convention after permanent organization.

The motion was laid on the table by consent.

COMMITTEE ON PERMANENT ORGANIZATION.

Mr. Truman, of Tioga county, moved the appointment of a Committee of sixteen on permanent organization.

The motion was carried.

The Chairman named the following as the Committee:

District.
1. Isaac O. Hunt and O W. Brennan.
2. W. H. Robertson and S. T. Backus.
3. James G. Graham and Wm. H. Tobey.
4. Nathan Lapham and Charles G. Myers.
5. Beman Brockway and James M. Munro.
6. Lyman Truman and A. B. Cornell.
7. Isaac Endress and Charles J. Folger.
8. D. H. Cole and J. G. Mersereau.

On motion of Mr. Raymond the Convention then took a recess until 5 P. M.

EVENING SESSION.

At 5 o'clock the Convention was called to order, when Mr. Truman, of the Committee on Permanent Organization, reported as follows:

President.—Abraham Wakeman, of New-York.

Vice-Presidents.—1st District—Wm. R. Stewart, Robert B. Roosevelt and Joseph B. Taylor of New-York; 2d District—Wm. Norton of Queens, Alexander Davidson of Rockland, and Silas D. Gifford of Westchester; 3d District—James Brady of Albany, G. Reynolds of Rensselaer, and J. C. Curtis of Sullivan; 4th District—John Fine of St. Lawrence, R. M. Little of Warren, and James Gibson of Washington; 5th District—C. Littlefield of Onondago, Ezra Graves of Herkimer, and J. C. Collins, of Lewis; 6th District—Giles W. Hotchkiss of Broome, Samuel B. Strong of Chemung, and James Bennett of Madison; 7th District—Robert Campbell of Steuben, Freeman Clark of Monroe, and John E. Seeleve of Seneca; 8th District—C. F. Shelley of Niagara, O. Benedict of Chatauque, and A. G. Rice of Cattaraugus.

Secretaries—1st District—Ira A. Allen of New-York, Henry B. Leaske of New-York; 2d District—John A. Stearns of Kings, John B. Dutcher of Dutchess; 3d District—John H. Gardiner of Schuyler, Samuel Rainy of Columbia; 4th District—Waldo M. Potter of Saratoga, N. S. Dickinson; 5th District—James McQuade of Oneida, P. M. Newton of Oswego; 6th District—E. Countryman of Otsego, M. M. Case of Schoharie. 7th District—A. S. Cummings of Cayuga, A. V. Hardenburg of Yates; 8th District—Jacob Odell of Orleans, A. N. Cole of Allegany.

The Chair put the question on the adoption of the report, and it was carried without dissent.

ADDRESS OF THE PRESIDENT.

On taking the Chair Mr. Wakeman said:

GENTLEMEN OF THE CONVENTION: I beg you will accept my hearty thanks for the honor you have thus conferred in calling upon me to act as your presiding officer. I little supposed when I came here that I was to have imposed on me the arduous duty of this position. I accept it with diffidence; relying upon your kind consideration, I shall endeavor to exercise the duties of the office impartially and justly, and, I trust, to the satisfaction of the entire Convention. We come here, gentlemen, under peculiar circumstances. You are the representatives of the great State of New-York, which, by the misfortunes of our last political canvass, is placed in a position antagonistic to the loyal sentiment of the great American people. We come here to-day, hoping to nominate a ticket, and we hope, by your coöperation, and by your manifesting a spirit of conciliation and compromise, to present a ticket that shall secure for it a large majority of the suffrages of the people of our noble State. [Applause.] You must expect opposition. Under all circumstances people are liable to be divided. No truth was ever enunciated so clearly, so distinctly or so wisely, but people were divided upon it. The Gospel, even, secures a division in public sentiment, and you may expect even to-day that our people will be divided upon the question of affording support to the Government. Your ticket here will have bitter opposition from one end of the State to the other, and it is for you to present such a ticket as will secure as large and as united a support as can be secured. Fellow-citizens and members of the Convention, all those who try to divide the loyal men and embarrass the Government will not support your ticket; all newspapers that have been suppressed for treasonable sentiments, or by returned soldiers—they will oppose your nominations. Men who say our soldiers who go to fight for the Government "ought to be shot"—they will oppose your nominations. Men who oppose the confication of the property of armed rebels will oppose your nominations; men who oppose the employment of negroes to relieve our soldiers from hardships and save their lives in digging ditches and to serve our country—they will oppose your nominations, men who oppose the war to crush the rebellion and who threaten resistance to the laws and revolution in the North—they will oppose your ticket. And they who offered to lead a mob to hurl the President from the Government by force and applauded the sentiment—they will oppose your nomination. Men who favor or hint at disunion in the separation of the West from New-England, and the alliance of the Western States with the Southern Confederacy—they will oppose your nomination. Men mean enough to denounce the Government and refuse to fight to maintain it, and discourage others from doing so, and then claim equal right and protection under its laws—they will refuse to support your nomination. [Applause.] Men who seek to demoralize our army and advise them to desert—they will oppose your nomination. [Applause.] And looked upon by armed and confessed traitors as their friends and allies—they will oppose your nomination. Men who raise the cry of "Abolitionist" against loyal men for sustaining the Government and opposing the rebels—they will oppose your nomination. [Great applause.] The men who threatened to dissolve the Union if they got beaten at the ballot-box, and thereby lost the spoils, they will oppose your nominations. The men engaged in the rebellion to overthrow the Government, because they are not willing that the voice of the majority in the ballot-box shall govern—they will oppose your nominations. And men whose disloyalty and sympathy with the open foes of the Government will disgrace their memory and their posterity, will refuse to support your nominations men who unite with your highest State official in calling the lawless mob just returned from burning orphan asylums, sacking private residences and murdering innocent citizens,—they will all refuse to support your nominations. [Great applause.] Men who strive to embarrass the Government in the enforcement of solemn acts of Congress, upon the execution of which may hang the very existence of our country,—all those will oppose your nominations. Now, who will you have to support them? You cannot elect your ticket unless you have a large and strong vote from the great mass of the people of this State. I trust every man of the State of New-York, who has risen up to a conception of the importance of the crisis through which we are passing, who really loves his country as the highest and best, will unite in support of your nominations, and cause them to be triumphant. With these remarks, fellow-citizens, thanking you again for your kind consideration, we will proceed to the business of the Convention.

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

Mr. Raymond moved to appoint a Committee to report on resolutions. Carried.

The President announced the Committee as follows:

Dist.
1. H. J. Raymond, George Opdyke.
2. James Humphrey, H. H. Farnham.
3. H. H. Van Dyck, Jas. G. Graham.
4. Orlando Kellogg, A. D. Wait.
5. Dennis McCarty, Daniel Campbell.
6. C. P. Cole, W. S. Lindair.
7. Lysander Frair, James Wiley.
8. Joseph Stringham, Augustus Flanks.

THE CONTESTED SEATS.

Mr. Beard, Chairman of the Committee on contested seats, reported the following:

Resolved, That the delegation from the Fifth District of New-York headed by Andrew Blakely, that from the Sixth District, by John Fitch, the Ninth, by Charles Spencer, the Tenth, by Thomas Little, the Sixteenth, by Amos J. Williamson, are hereby declared entitled to seats, and that Wm. J. Miller, of Putnam County, is regular delegate from said county.

Agreed to without dissent.

VIVA VOCE NOMINATIONS.

A motion was made and carried to proceed to viva voce nomination for Secretary of State.

Ward Hunt nominated Chauncey M. Depew, of Westchester; Burt Van Horn nominated Col. Peter. A. Porter, of Niagara; Mr. Riard named Theophilus C. Callicot, of Kings.

The President announced the result as follows:

Peter A. Porter	213
Chauncey M. Depew	140
T. C. Callicot	15

On motion, the nomination of Col. Porter was made unanimous.

Mr. Opdyke nominated Thos. W. Olicott, of Albany, as candidate for Comptroller.

Mr. H. H. Van Dyck seconded the motion, and on the motion of Clark B. Cochran, the nomination was made by acclamation.

Mr. Madden, of Orange, nominated Jas. T. Brady, of New-York, for Attorney-General. [Cheers.]

Mr. E. D. Morgan, of New-York, regretted to inform the Convention that Mr. Brady positively refuses to accept any nomination. The New-York papers of this morning anuounce the fact, and he regretted to say that he had received a dispatch from the gentleman, conveying similar information. Mr. Morgan read the dispatch to the Convention.

Several motions were here made to make the nominations by acclamation.

Mr. Thomas B. Carroll said if the state of certain gentlemen had to be changed, it would look well if they would take it outside and alter it there. Notwithstanding the positive declaration of the present incumbent, he felt that if the nomination was offered to him in the unanimous spirit in which his distinguished services entitled him, and as it was offered two years ago, it might result in his acceptance. The people of the State would be the gainer thereby; and he moved the nomination of Daniel S. Dickinson by acclamation.

Mr. Hammond, of Jefferson County, named John K. Porter, of Albany, indorsing him warmly, but subsequently withdrew his name, one candidate already in nomination being a resident of Albany.

Mr. Madden withdrew his motion.

Mr. Charles S. Spencer, of New-York, nominated Gen. John B. Cochrane.

Mr. Beard, of Kings County, moved that his nomination be made unanimous.

Mr. Clark B. Cochrane, of Albany, read a letter from John K. Porter, declining any position on the State ticket, although most heartily concurring in the objects of the Convention.

Mr. Raymond could not consent to a motion to nominate by acclamation, so long as more than one candidate was before the Convention, although the nomination of Gen. Cochrane would gratify him very much.

Mr. Truman, of Tioga, knew that Mr. Dickinson would not accept—he can't afford it.

Mr. Carroll then withdrew his name and indorsed the nomination of Gen. Cochrane, who was then nominated by acclamation.

Mr. Hutchings, of New-York, called up the resolution for the appointment of a Committee of three from each Judicial District to nominate a State Committee.

Mr. Van Dyck asked the gentleman to modify his motion so as to reduce the number to two from each county.

Mr. Hutchings declined as a delegate, remarking, at the same time, that experience taught him that the smaller the Committee the closer the conformation.

Mr. Raymond considered the question of some importance, and agreeing with the gentleman from Albany, he moved to amend to reduce the Committee to sixteen. Lost.

Recess till 8:30.

8:30 P. M.

Mr. Hotchkiss, of Broome, nominated for State Treasurer, George W. Schuyler, of Tompkins County. [Applause.]

The motion was seconded by Mr. Johnson, of Delaware, and others, and the nomination was made by acclamation.

Mr. Decker, of Monroe, moved the nomination of Henry R. Tilden for Judge of the Court of Appeals, to be made by acclamation. Agreed to.

Mr. Sherwood, of Steuben, nominated Stephen T. Haight for Canal Commissioner.

Mr. Churchill, of Oswego, named Benjamin F. Bruce.

The result of the ballot was as follows: Bruce, 220; Haight, 131.

The amendment was received with great applause, and amid cries for Bruce, Gen. Bruce responded, saying, that to be nominated by men hearty and wholly loyal was an honor indeed. An earnest and vigorous support of the ticket would disenthral the State from the Seymour Copperhead Democracy.

Mr. Walker, of Kings, nominated J. Platt Goodsell for State Engineer and Surveyor.

Mr. Ward Hunt named the present incumbent, W. B. Taylor.

Mr. Madden, of Orange, seconded the motion, and remarked that the slate had already been broken, and it might be further beneficially broken.

Mr. H. H. Van Dyke named Charles W. Wentz, of Schoharie.

Mr. Dorton, of Dutchess, named F. A. Utter, of the same county.

The vote was announced, as follows:

Taylor	234	Utter	26
Goodsell	67	Wentz	10

The nomination of Mr. Taylor was made unanimous.

Mr. Bell, of Jefferson, named James K. Bates as Inspector of State Prisons.

Judge Johnson, of Schenectady, nominated David P. Forrest.

The nomination of Dr. Bates was seconded by Messrs. Brandeth, Hubbard, Madden, Graves, Coles and Hammond.

Judge Johnson said Mr. Forrest did not wish to stand in the way of any respectable member of this Convention, and had therefore just desired him to withdraw his name.

Dr. Bates was then unanimously nominated.

THE RESOLUTIONS.

Mr. Raymond from the Committee on Resolutions reported the following, which were adopted with great enthusiasm:

Resolved, That it is the first and highest duty of every American citizen to do all in his power to maintain the integrity of the American Union and supremacy of the constitution of the United States over the whole national domain, and that in this crisis of the national fate we recognize the supreme obligation of laying aside all differences of political opinion, and of giving to the Government a generous and cordial support in its efforts to suppress the rebellion.

Resolved, That we hail with patriotic exultation the victories achieved by the Union arms as indicating the sure and speedy triumph of the Union cause, that we regard the prompt and effective reinforcement of the Union arms of vital importance to a speedy termination of the war and the preservation of the country from hostility with foreign Powers, and that we condemn as unpatriotic and unfaithful to the loyal sentiment of the State of New-York the action of its present Governor, and of those who have acted with him, in embarrassing the efforts of the Government to increase its military force, in stimulating a spirit of violent resistance to the laws of the land, and in encouraging the horrible outrages upon the peace and order of society, and upon the persons and property of unoffending citizens, which have recently disgraced the City of New-York.

Resolved, That, while in common with the whole country we deplore the ravages of war, and would hail with heartfelt rejoicing the return of peace, we deem it inconsistent with the honor and dignity of the nation to make any other tenders of peace to the men in arms against it than such as are embodied in the Constitution of the United States, under which they can at any time resume their place in the American Union, subject only to such pains and penalties as they may have incurred by a violation of its laws, and that while we would have the Government deal in the most liberal spirit with those who may lay down their arms and resume their allegiance to the Constitution and Government of the United States, we will consent to no peace which shall involve a separation of the American Union, a recognition of the right of the power of any State to secede or change in the Constitution of the United States, except such as may be made by the people in accordance with the forms which it prescribes.

Resolved, That in the unparalleled difficulties which it has had to encounter, the Administration of Mr. Lincoln has deserved the gratitude of the people of the United States, for the ability and steadfast courage with which it has prosecuted the war for the preservation of the Union, and that we find in the signal success of its financial policy, in its preservation of peace with foreign nations, and the splendid victories which have crowned our arms, evidences of wisdom and of patriotism which entitle it to the confidence and support of the American people.

Resolved, Therefore, that we deplore the efforts made by interested politicians and designing demagogues, to arouse a spirit of partisan hostility against the Government, believing that it tends to encourage rebels, protract the war, and involve the country in fresh difficulties both at home and abroad; and we call upon loyal men everywhere to do everything in their power to allay all animosities of political sentiment, to kindle anew the patriotism of the people, and to unite the patriots of all parties in a common effort to replenish our armies, to crush the rebellion and restore the Union.

Resolved, That to the brave soldiers of the Republic who, in the prosecution of the war, have evinced equal zeal and fortitude, valor and devotion, we tender the grateful thanks of our constituents, of the loyal millions of our countrymen and of the lovers of impartial freedom throughout the world; and we brand the action of Gov. Seymour and his partisans in our late Legislature, whereby the loyal voters of the State who shall then be serving their country in the Union armies, are denied the right of suffrage at our approaching election, as alike unpatriotic invidious and unjust.

Resolved, That we approve the action of the Government in repelling, in firm and friendly terms, every attempt at foreign intervention in our affairs, and that the State of New-York will bear her full share of whatever duties and responsibilities the Government may hereafter be compelled to assume in preserving any part of our country from foreign invasion, and in maintaining upon this continent the ascendency of American influence and the perpetuity of Republican institutions.

Resolved, That we present to the people of the State of New-York the names of the men this day nominated as Union men, not as partisans, without regard to their political antecedents, and we ask for them the support of all loyal men without distinction of party.

Previous to the adoption of the respolutions Mr. Raymond, in response to numerous calls, said that in the share he had in framing these resolutions, he had endeavored to make them so explicit as to render any explanations unnecessary; and from the enthusiasm with which they have been received he believed that in this the Committee had been successful. The one great object of the Committee was to prepare a platform that would unite the people, not for mere partisan purposes, but in this great cause of our common country. Alluding to the rebellion, Mr. Raymond said that the rebels, deprived of all hope from abroad, and from that party in the North which did not hesitate to evince its sympathy with them, would be compelled to abandon their wicked cause within a month. One year ago we nominated a gentleman of exalted patriotism and purity of personal character. He was not successful. The people elected his opponent. He (Mr. R.) then took occasion to say that should such be the result, the effect would be deeply injurious to the interests of the country. He did not believe that Horatio Seymour was at heart hostile to the American Union. But his political associations, if not his principles, had led him to take such action as was best calculated to give aid and comfort to the enemies of our country. On the other hand, his actions were calculated to convince thousands in the Democratic party—for the masses of that party were loyal—that they had been miserably deluded; and we may reasonably expect their support. Our ticket is strong personally and in principle, and the signs of success are most encouraging.

Mr. Demers, of Rensalaer, moved the following as an additional resolution:

Resolved, That the proclamation of President Lincoln decreeing the emancipation of the slaves of rebels who refuse to lay down their arms, receiving as it does the support of every true soldier and General in the army of the Union, and every patriot at home, demands from all loyal men a cordial indorsement and from this Convention an emphatic and unqualified approval.

A delegate moved to table the resolution.

Mr. Spencer, of New-York, regretted that any man could be found in a Convention of nearly four hundred Republicans, to move on the table resolutions indorsing the President's proclamation of freedom.

Mr. Grover, of Steuben, hoped no additions would be made to the resolutions.

Mr. Raymond reminded his colleague, Mr. Spencer, that this is a Union, not a Republican, Convention, and there are many loyal men who doubt the propriety of indorsing the President's proclamation.

Mr. Demers eloquently supported the resolution, claiming that Dickinson, Cochrane, Grant, Logan and every other Union Democrat of prominence, were among the warmest supporters of the proclamation, and he contended that the Convention would merit the contempt of the nation if it neglected to approve it.

The motion to lay on the table was lost.

Mr. Beard, of Kings, opposed the resolution as unnecessary. He had the honor of commanding the first negro regiment that went into battle in this war, and had restored more slaves to freedom, under this proclamation, than any man in the Covention, yet he was opposed to the resolution because it selected a particular act of the Administration for special commendation, after we have emphatically indorsed all its acts.

Judge Folger moved to amend by adding "and as a war measure, thoroughly legal and justifiable."

Mr. Demers accepted the amendment.

Mr. Raymond said this removed all objections.

Resolution adopted.

A resolution approving the course of State Senator Preston King in the Senate of the United States was adopted unanimously.

Committees from the several Judicial Districts reported the following for members of the State Committee:

First District—James Kelly, A. N Palmer, W. R. Stewart.

Whereupon the President declared the Convention adjourned sine die.

A Card from Mr. James T. Brady.

HE POSITIVELY DECLINES A NOMINATION FOR ANY OFFICE.

NEW-YORK, Wednesday, Sept. 2, 1863.

My name is mentioned in your columns this morning in connection with the office of Attorney-General. I am not a candidate for any office, and will not accept a nomination for any.

Yours truly, J. T. BRADY.

IMPORTANT FROM ARKANSAS.

Defeat of the Rebel Forces Under Marmaduke and Price.

PROBABLE CAPTURE OF LITTLE ROCK.

ST. LOUIS, Wednesday, Sept. 2.

Gen. Steele telegraphs Gen. Schofield from Duvall's Bluff, Ark., Aug. 26, that our advance, under Gen. Davidson, has driven Marmaduke's cavalry, about 3,000 strong, out of Brownsville, capturing Col. Burbridge, and some privates. At the last accounts Gen. Glover's brigade was pushing the enemy toward Bayou Metoe.

A dispatch from Pilot Knob says that deserters from Burbridge's command report Gen. Price's forces were driven across the Arkansas on the 29th. That the rebels were in full retreat; and that Gens. Steele and Davidson were in hot pursuit. Marmaduke's command was completely routed and scattered, and Little Rock within the grasp of the Federal army.

The Battle of Honey Springs, Ark.

WASHINGTON, Wednesday, Sept. 2.

Major-Gen. Blunt, in his official report of the battle of Honey Springs, Ark., says the First Kansas colored regiment particularly distinguished themselves. They fought like veterans and preserved their line unbroken throughout the engagement. Their coolness and bravery I have never seen surpassed. They were in the hottest of the fight and opposed to Texan troops twice their number, whom they completely routed. The Twentieth Texas regiment, which fought against them, went into the fight with 300 men and came out with only 60.

THE SHELLING OF CHARLESTON.

Gen. Gillmore's Reply to Beauregard's Protest—Letter to the Spanish Consul.

WASHINGTON, Wednesday, Sept. 2.

The following is Gen. Gillmore's reply—a brief notice of which has been published from the rebel papers—to Gen. Beauregard's communication, already printed at length:

DEPARTMENT OF THE SOUTH,
HEADQUARTERS IN THE FIELD,
MORRIS ISLAND, S. C., 9 P. M., Aug. 22, 1863.

SIR: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your communication of this date, complaining that one of my batteries had opened upon the City of Charleston, and thrown a number of heavy rifle shell into the city, the inhabitants of which, of course, were asleep and unarmed.

My letter to you demanding the surrender of Fort Sumter and Morris Island, and threatening in default thereof to open fire upon Charleston, was delivered near Fort Wagner at 11¼ o'clock A. M. of the 21st inst., and should have arrived at your headquarters in time to have permitted your answer to reach me within the limit assigned, namely, four hours. The fact that you were absent from your headquarters at the time of its arrival, may be regarded as an unfortunate circumstance for the City of Charleston, but it is one for which I clearly am not responsible. This letter bore date at my headquarters, and was officially delivered by an officer of my Staff. The inadvertent omission of my signature doubtless affords ground for special pleading. But it is not the argument of a commander solicitous only for the safety of sleeping women and children, and unarmed men. Your threats of retaliation for acts of mine which you do not allege to be in violation of the usages of civilized warfare, except as regards the length of time allowed as notice of my intention, are passed by without comment. I will, however, call your attention to the well-established principle that the commander of a place attacked, but not invested, having its avenues of escape open and practicable, has no right to a notice of an intention of bombardment other than that which is given by the threatening attitude of his adversary. Even had not this letter been written, the City of Charleston has had, according to your own computation, forty days' notice of her danger. During that time my attack upon her defences has steadily progressed. The ultimate object of that attack has at no time been doubtful. If, under the circumstances, the life of a single non-combatant is exposed to peril by the bombardment of the city, the responsibility rests with those who have first failed to remove the non-combatants, or to secure the safety of the city after having held control of all its approaches for a period of nearly two years and a half in the presence of a threatening force, and who afterwards refused to accept the terms upon which the bombardment might have been postponed. From various sources, official and otherwise, I am led to believe that most of the women and children of Charleston were long since removed from that city. But upon your assurance that the city is still full of them, I shall suspend the bombardment until 11 o'clock P. M. to-morrow, thus giving you two days from the time you acknowledge to have received my communication of the 21st instant.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,
Q. A. GILLMORE, Brig.-Gen. Commanding.
Gen. P. T. Beauregard, Commanding the Confederate Forces, Charleston, S. C.

GEN. GILLMORE TO THE SPANISH CONSUL.

In reply to a remonstrance addressed to Gen. Gillmore by Sr. Moncada, in relation to the security of Spanish subjects residing in Charleston, the following letter was sent:

DEPARTMENT OF THE SOUTH,
HEADQUARTERS IN THE FIELD,
MORRIS ISLAND, S. C., 7 P. M., Aug. 22.

The Spanish Consul, Charleston, S. C.:

SIR: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of this date, desiring of me a suspension of the bombardment of Charleston for twenty-four hours, to allow the subjects of the Spanish Government to depart from the city.

I had supposed that ample time had been given for this purpose. The commencement of the attack on the defences of Charleston, some forty days ago, is regarded as having given plain and emphatic warning that the city might be fired on at any time.

Nothing, however, is further from my wish than to endanger the lives or property of subjects of the Government which you represent, and I cordially accede to your request. No further bombardment of Charleston need be apprehended until 11 o'clock P. M. to-morrow.

I have the honor to be, Sir, very respectfully, your obedient servant,
Q. A. GILLMORE,
Brigadier-General Commanding.

THE DRAFT ON LONG ISLAND.

Draft in the Third Congressional District.

ELEVENTH WARD.

In pursuance of the adjournment on Tuesday the Provost-Martial of the Third Congressional District opened his Headquarters for the continuation of the draft. All interest in the proceedings seems to have died away, no person save those who live in the vicinity of the Headquarters seeming to care anything for it.

A large force of Policemen under charge of Inspector FOLK and Capt. JOEL SMITH kept order in front of the building and maintained quiet in the room, while a military force under Capt. HEFELFINGER guarded the rear. Lieut. BARGER, of Col. NUGENT's Staff, was present on behalf of the Government. Col. VAN BUREN, Ninety-third Pennsylvania Volunteers, Superintendent KENNEDY, and other officials, sat upon the platform.

At 9 o'clock the Provost-Marshal announced that all things were in readiness, and he should proceed to make the draft from the Alderman KIMBALL, of the Eleventh Ward; several colored men; T. TILTON, of the Independent; J. C. JACOBS, of the Express; Mr. McCLUSKY, of the News; Mr. BROCKWAY, of the Express, and half a dozen policemen were among the lucky ones.

After a recess of one hour, the afternoon session was opened, and after the usual formalities, the following names were drawn, which we have arranged, as usual, alphabetically. The only persons in or about the headquarters, as spectators, were inhabitants of the Draft for the Third District will be concluded by the completion of the Fifteenth and Ninsteenth Wards. Capt. GREGORY's headquarters are very small, and the accommodations afforded are very limited. With all these drawbacks, however, all things have gone along smoothly and in perfect order, and we desire to thank the Provost-Marshal for the courtesies extended to the TIMES reporter.

The Draft in the Second Congressional District—Sixteenth Ward—Eighth Sub-District.

The drawing of names for the United States service recommenced at 9½ o'clock yesterday morning, at No. 26 Grand-street, and the Eighth Sub-District, or Sixteenth Ward of Brooklyn, was first taken, the counting of ballots, &c., proceeding under the inspection and supervision of a Committee composed of Messrs. Alderman Saal, Ex-Alderman Keihl, Supervisor Hanson, Ex-Alderman Meartz and Jacob Rosengarten, Esq.

The same force of police and military was in attendance, and during the morning the premises were visited by Superintendent KENNEDY, who expressed his satisfaction with all the arrangements, and then proceeded to a review of the First District at Jamaica Station. Inspector CARPENTER was also present for several hours.

The number of ballots deposited in the wheel, equivalent to the number of names enrolled in the Sixteenth Ward, was 3,495, and the quota 324, which, with the additional 50 per cent., 162, made 486 in all to be drawn.

Among others drawn was the foreman of Hose Co. No. 2, a number of tailors, several physicians, and quite a delegation of lager beer venders. One man drawn had been dead several months, and two or three other conscripts are already in the army—freaks as curious as the drafting of the blind man on Tuesday.

The $300 Clause.

To the Editor of the New-York Times:

The opinion of THADDEUS STEVENS with regard to the $300 clause, as stated in your issue of the 31st, is correct, on the ground that furnishing a substitute excuses the one so furnishing during his term of service. This he states as a principle that is not called in question.

Now, in strict justice, neither the furnishing of a substitute nor the payment of $300 ought to exempt the one so furnishing or paying from liability under any subsequent draft, unless the substitute so procured be an alien.

The following principles will be universally admitted: 1. All citizens are equally bound to support the Government by personal service, if necessary. 2. That service may be performed through a substitute. 3. If all those physically capable of personal service are not required, the chances in the allotment should be always strictly equal and impartial. (Any exception made to this principle on account of peculiar hardships, as in case of the only son of a widowed mother, is not just, but merciful.)

In accordance with the principle last stated, if a man liable to do military duty is drafted and procures a substitute who is also liable to do military duty, the man so procuring a substitute should be liable under any subsequent draft equally with those who were so fortunate as to escape the first. Otherwise the men who escape the first draft will have their chances of escaping the second diminished, that is their chances of escaping will be less than they would have been if the man first drafted had gone himself instead of procuring a substitute, whereas the chances, according to the principle, should always be fair and equal. For example, suppose that in a certain place there are three men, A, B and C, who are liably to do military duty—that one of their number is required, and that A is drafted. Suppose now that he serves in person, and that a subsequent draft is ordered requiring one of those remaining. It is plain that B and C would have one chance in two of escaping the draft. But suppose that A, instead of serving in person, had, in any way, procured B as a substitute, and that, in accordance with the principle stated by Mr. STEVENS, A was thereby exempted from the subsequent draft. Then A being exempt because he was a substitute, and B being exempt because already in the service, C would certainly be drafted on the second draft.

It may be said that it is hard for a man who has already procured a substitute, to be drafted while his representative is already in the service. Very well; but it is just. If hard in the second place, so it was in the first, not only for him but for any other who may be drafted and unwilling to go.

It may be said that men in moderate circumstances might make great sacrifices, procure a substitute and then be drafted again, without the power of procuring another. Very well; so were men forced to go under the first draft, without being able to procure a substitute. It is positively unjust to increase the liability of any to be drafted, as would be the case under the arrangement referred to.

The procuring of a substitute, however, under the principles advocated, would be just and proper. The Government would be served, and those liable to a subsequent draft would not be injured. Any objection made to such procuring of substitutes must spring from the same envious spirit that is displeased with the good fortune of others in the possession of wealth, friends, influence, or superior advantages of any kind whatever.

JUSTITIA.

WEDNESDAY, Sept. 2—P. M.

The Treasury Department will probably be prepared by the 25th inst. or 1st of October to issue, if need be, the Interest-bearing Legal Tender Notes, authorized by the act of Congress of March 3, 1863. We have not heard the precise rate of interest which the first series of Notes will be made to bear; but have reason to suppose it will be five ₩ cent. ₩ annum, the interest payable in Currency. Previous to the employment of these Notes for the current disbursements of the Treasury we have heard it intimated that notice may be given that the further subscriptions to the Popular 6 ₩ cent. Loan at par will cease after a given date. And it has been suggested that, up to the expiration of such notice, the Secretary will authorize the Associated Banks of the great Cities, or any number or combination of private Bankers or other Capitalists, to subscribe or contract for any portion of the Popular Loan of Five Hundred Millions, under the act of Feb. 25, 1862, which may then remain open for negotiation, to be paid for in easy periodical installments, after the subscription is finally closed. If this should be done, and the subscriptions by installments prove large, the use of the Interest-bearing Legal Tender Treasury Notes would be correspondingly reduced, if not postponed altogether for the present.

The demand for Money to-day was quite sharp from a prominent portion of the Stock firms on the Street, and at 7 ₩ cent. But the pressure was by no means general and many of the old and steady-going houses were easy at 6 and in some instances at 5 ₩ cent. ₩ annum. The change in the temper of the market, however, and the consequent disposition among lenders to caution, created a very feverish state of things at the Stock Board in the afternoon, and the decline on the Railway list was large and precipitate. The eagerness to sell was marked throughout the list, and some descriptions no doubt went lower than they ought to have sold in proportion to New-York Central and Erie as the standards of the Railway list and which declined about 2½ ₩ cent. each. Thus, Illinois Central was done as low as 126 ₩ cent. as against 132½ in the morning, but subsequently rallied to 127½ ₩ cent.

Late in the afternoon the market continued very unsettled, and speculators appeared for the most part to be at fault. At 4 o'clock the following prices were made as compared with Tuesday night. The half-yearly Dividend upon the Hudson River Stock is announced as 4 ₩ cent., payable on the 15th inst.; the transfers to close on the 8th inst. The price of Gold Coin is 1 ₩ cent. higher than yesterday, and Exchange on London is 140 ₩ cent.

A reorganization of the Ogdensburgh Railway Company is being discussed both here and in Boston. The line of Road—Ogdensburgh to Rouse's Point—is 118 miles, and earns in gross about half a million of dollars, while since 1856 (the work being in the control of Trustees) no other net income than 7 ₩ cent. on the First Mortgage Bonds, $1,500,000, has been realized by the other Bond or Stockholders. The Second Mortgage is $3,077,000 in amount, the Bonds being convertible into shares, and it is this interest, now selling at less than 30 cents on the dollar, with eight or nine years accummulation of unpaid coupons, that propose to reorganize the Company and take the property out of the present Trusteeship.

The Herald of this morning has the following notice of a new corporation for the sale of guano:

"New-York Guano Stock, which has begun to be dealt in at the Public Board, represents the property of the New-York Guano Company, which owns two islands, called the Swan Islands, situated in the Caribbean Sea, equidistant between Cuba and Aspinwall. The capital of the Company is five millions. The guano on the islands is represented to be between three and four million tons, and of good quality. It is coming freely to market, and is said to command a ready sale. The officers of the Company are: GEO. E. WHITE, President; John Travers, H. H. Boody, A. G. Jerome, John Kellogg, John B. Kitching and C. H. Delamater, Directors. Among the parties interested are Wm. B. Duncan, of Duncan, Sherman & Co.; A. W. Greenleaf & Co., Wm. R. Travers, Leonard W. Jerome, O. M. Pettit, O. D. Ashley, &c., &c."

NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE REBELLION.

The news from the expedition which has recently penetrated Arkansas under command of Gen. STEELE, is important. Advices from Gen. STEELE, to the 26th ult., state that an advance, under Gen. DAVIDSON had encountered and defeated MARMADUKE'S cavalry, about 3,000 strong, and driven them in utter route from Barnaville. Later advices, by way of Pilot Knob, state that PRICE'S forces were driven across the Arkansas on the 29th, and that the rebels were in full retreat. Our forces are, probably, by this time in possession of Little Rock.

Advices from Stevenson, Ala., to the night of the 31st ult., state that Gen. ROSECRANS' army was at that time nearly all across the Tennessee River, and that Chattanooga was well invested. A heavy cavalry and artillery force had been sent to cut the Georgia Railroad at Dalton Junction, which would destroy BRAGG'S Southern communication, and leave him none excepting the road through East Tennessee, which Gen. BURNSIDE has no doubt before this time severed.

The Cincinnati Commercial has late advices from Gen. BURNSIDE'S army, indicating that his movements have been made with extraordinary rapidity, and that a report of decisive results may be expected in a few days. His advance is by this time very near Knoxville, Tenn., and at latest accounts the General in person was pushing on with his cavalry.

The Cincinnati Times states that information has been received in that city that a large force of rebel cavalry was moving through Cumberland Gap into Kentucky. The Colonel of the Tenth Ohio cavalry, just arrived from Mount Sterling, reports that his scouts from that direction bring no information of such raid.

GENERAL NEWS.

The session of the Union State Convention commenced yesterday forenoon at 11 o'clock. Judge LOW, Chairman of the State Committee, called the Convention to order. There being some differences of opinion among the delegates as to the proper mode of organization, the Convention took a recess until 2 o'clock P. M., with a view to more harmonious action. Upon reassembling, WARD HUNT, of Oneida County, was chosen temporary Chairman. Committees on Contested Seats and Permanent Organization were then chosen, and the Convention took a further recess until 5 o'clock. During the evening session the permanent organization was effected without difficulty—the Committee reporting the name of ABRAHAM WAKEMAN for President, with the requisite number of Vice-Presidents and Secretaries. Mr. WAKEMAN, on taking the Chair, made a pertinent and patriotic address. The nominations for the State Ticket were made viva voce, and are as follows:

For Secretary of State	PETER A PORTER
For Comptroller	THOS. W. OLCOTT
For Attorney-General	JOHN COCHRANE
For State Treasurer	GEO. W. SCHUYLER
For Judge of Appeals	HENRY R. SELDEN
For Canal Commissioner	BENJ. F. BRUCE
For State Engineer	W. B. TAYLOR
For Inspector of Prisons	JAMES K. BATES

The business of the Convention was concluded last night, and the proceedings in full will be found in this morning's TIMES.

The Board of Aldermen had no quorum yesterday, and adjourned without date. The design was to meet and receive the opinion of the Corporation Counsel on the legality of the exemption ordinance passed by the Supervisors, but as a note was received from the Associate Corporation Counsel, on Monday afternoon, stating that Mr. DEVELIN was out of town, and would not return till Wednesday, it was, of course, quite impossible to have the desired opinion at the time expected. It is probable that the opinion will not appear to the public before Thursday, when both Boards are likely to meet, with a view to pass their exemption ordinance over the Mayor's veto.

The Board of Supervisors met yesterday. Mr. PURDY, of the Committee on Annual Taxes, stated that the Committee had prepared to report the Tax Levy, but their report had been lost through the inadvertence of an officer in the Finance Department, to whom it had been intrusted for comparison and revision of some of the figures contained in it, and therefore the Committee excused themselves for delay on this account, and promise to report at the next meeting of the Board. Mr. TWEED presented a petition from the stone-cutters engaged on the New Court-house, for an increase of twenty-five cents per day on their wages. It was referred to the Court-house Committee. The Comptroller transmitted additional riot damage claims, numbered from 1,828 to 1,923, which were referred to the Committee investigating these claims. The Superintendent of the Unsafe Building Commission sent in a letter asking, in pursuance of a recommendation of the Comptroller to him, that an ordinance be passed transferring the account of his Bureau in the Finance Department from the City to the county, in accordance with the law amendatory of the act creating the Commission. Referred. The Board adjourned to 2 o'clock P. M. on Friday.

The New-Orleans Picayune of the 22d ult. announces the reception of news in that city that the French occupied Tampico on the 9th.

The prize steamer Charleston has been sold in Philadelphia for $8,500, which is $500 more than her appraised value.

There are three cases now pending before the United States District Court in Philadelphia, in which the powers of the Board of Enrollment, under the Draft act, are called in question. In two of these cases the relators claimed exemption on the ground of being over 35 years of age, and, in the other, exemption was claimed on the ground of being the only son of a widowed mother. The Boards before which these cases came having decided adverse to the claims, writs of habeas corpus were obtained, and thus the Court is called upon to interpret the fourteenth section of the act, which declares that the decision of the Board shall be final. Judge KNOX argued the case on behalf of the War Department on Tuesday. The case is held under advisement by the Court.

Surgeon-General HAMMOND has been ordered South to inspect the hospitals at Charleston, Hilton Head, Key West and New-Orleans, and directed to give his personal attention to the medical management of the service at those places. The Washington Republican says: "If all reports are true, it will turn out that Gen. HAMMOND'S visit South will prove a permanent thing. Facts probably elicited before the commission now sitting in this city for the purpose of investigating the Medical Department of the Government, do not reflect the highest credit upon Gen. HAMMOND."

The annual Fair of the American Institute will open at the Academy of Music this evening. An address will be delivered by JOHN H. ANTHON, Esq.

In the Railway Share Market there was a precipitate fall of 2½@4 ℔ cent., yesterday afternoon. Money was active among the Stock Brokers, at 6@7 ℔ cent. Gold advanced 1 ℔ cent.; sales at 128.

A fair business was transacted in Breadstuffs yesterday. Prices of Corn were much higher. Oats were also firmer. Provisions were lightly dealt in; Pork was cheaper. Cotton and Whisky were in fair demand and were dearer. Hides, Dry Goods, Boots and Shoes, Sole Leather and Sugars were active and advancing. Oils, Teas and Wool were in less request. Freights were quiet, with 622 vessels of all classes in port. Other branches of trade presented no new features.

The President's Letter.

President LINCOLN'S letter to the Springfield Convention has all his characteristic solidity of sense and aptness of expression. It hits, as his written efforts always do, the very heart of his subject. Its contrast in downright directness of sentiment and style with many of the missives that used to be sent from the White House, in the days when glittering generalities were thought the only courtly language, is odd enough; but "plain people," who make up, in fact, the real people, like ABRAHAM LINCOLN none the less for this ingenuous freedom.

The letter does not disclose, as some had anticipated, a new policy. It simply translates into plain speech what had before been made sufficiently obvious by plain acts. It ought to be pretty well understood by this time that the President is not a man who takes steps backwards. If he moves at all, it is always straight on, and even then not without great deliberation. Those who fancied that this letter would show some modification of the President's past policy will find very little comfort in its explicit utterances. His position is that the duty of the day lies simply and solely in the overthrow of the rebellion in the field—that all plans and projects and speculations which do not further that object are worthless—that until the rebel army is conquered, all talk of amnesty or compromise is but idle breath, and that when it is conquered, the States will fall back into their old orbits, and the Southern people into their constitutional duties, without any great difficulty. There can be no rational denial of this. The force of which JEFF. DAVIS is Commander-in-Chief is the embodiment of the rebellion. When that shows any signs of a disposition to throw down its arms and to confer in reference to an amnesty which the President, by law of Congress, is expressly authorized to grant, it will be time to consider the matter; but until then, there is no duty but to fight that army to the best of our ability.

Upon the question of the Emancipation Proclamation, and the employment of blacks as soldiers, the President is no less explicit. The Proclamation, he says, was designed for a military end exclusively. He has the testimony of commanders in the field that it has contributed to that end; among which commanders are some who have no affinity with the Republican party, and who judge solely by military considerations. Whether that Proclamation was valid or not under the law, it is now beyond his power. Other authority must pass upon it. If invalid, it is null. If valid, it is irrevocable; for it is plain that the President has no power to make a man once legally free again legally a slave. The President's argument for the employment of colored troops is unanswerable. He declares that it has practicably operated to the advantage of our arms—that "at least one of our successes could not have been achieved, when it was, but for the aid of black soldiers"—and he contends that the military considerations in this matter ought to prevail. Those who oppose the war outright may consistently oppose the employment of black soldiers which contribute to its success. But those who favor the war are bound to consent to all available means for its effective prosecution, and to form their judgment by the military standard solely.

But the great charm of this free-and-easy, familiar letter, is its utter freedom from everything like a partisan spirit. Doubtless there are some minor views in it with which many good War Democrats would not exactly coincide; but the dominant sentiment of the production cannot but find an echo in every truly loyal heart, without distinction of party. Every line shows the one supreme desire and determination to subordinate everything to the maintenance of the Union. Every opinion is shaped, every principle applied, with exclusive reference to that end. It is a noble example. It ought to carry a moral power of far greater account than any mere argumentation. If all loyal men would faithfully keep to this criterion, rigidly excluding all thought of party interests and party associations, the Union cause would quickly gather a new strength that would amaze everybody. The differences about the methods and policies best calculated to speed on the national triumph would dwindle and sink out of sight. Confidence would be reposed in the superior information and opportunities for correct judgment possessed by the Government; and there would be a generous emulation everywhere to support the Government in its chosen modes of action. It is party spirit, infinitely more than the true national spirit, that keeps up the bickerings about the means employed. Party spirit has no business in this conflict. It should be put under the ban. It should be driven relentlessly from the sight and the hearing of men. It is a happy thing that President LINCOLN sets his face so firmly against it. The very best proof of his fitness for his present weighty responsibilities is to be found in the fact that he has a soul possessed of this magnanimity, and a mind capable of these conceptions of patriotic duty.

The Raising of Armies—What Will the Malcontents Have?

Those who were in the habit of perusing Copperheaded newspapers and speeches during the dark days of last Winter may remember that the things which afforded them most delight, and on which they were never tired of dwelling, was the alleged inability of the Government to raise any more men, and the general reluctance to volunteer. They contrasted the general enthusiasm of 1861 with the general apathy of 1862, and asked with scornful triumph to what was the change owing, except to the widespread disgust caused by the Anti-Slavery policy of the Government. The "900,000 men," whose appearance on the scene as soon as the Emancipation Proclamation was issued, had been promised by Mr. GREELEY in a moment of poetic exultation, furnished a constant subject for taunts and sneers, and jokes more or less ponderous. The future was, of course, doubtful, and many unexpected things might happen, but of one thing the public were requested to rest assured, and that was that there could not be 10,000 men more in all the loyal States induced for either love or money to enter the National army to carry out the policy which had been traced out in the Proclamation and the Confiscation act. The only hope there was of being able to carry on the war at all lay, we were told, in a return to the programme traced out in the President's Message and the resolutions of Congress, which at the very outset limited the object of the war to the restoration of the status quo.

The tide of events, especially in politics, flows so fast that even those who may remember this language most distinctly, as it poured from the Democratic newspapers and lecture-rooms, may fancy it farther back than it really is. But, strange as it may seem to those who pay attention to what the same oracles are saying at this moment, the Government was actually defied to raise troops by volunteering down to March last, and everything that could be said or done to render volunteering unpopular was said and done. The war was declared to be a "war for the niggers;" an unnecessary war, begun through Republican blood-thirstiness; a war which might be ended at any moment, as the South was ready and anxious to make peace; a bloody and bootless war, in which success was impossible, and in which contractors were enriched while the nation was ruined, and finally a war, the object and nature of which had been so completely and so wickedly changed by the radicals, that no man, no matter how zealously he might have supported it at first, was bound to lend it one minute's further support.

The Conscription act was passed, but the Emancipation Proclamation remained unrevoked; the Confiscation act remained unrepealed; the arming of the negroes went on busily. Not one jot or tittle of all the things in the policy of the Government, which the Copperheaded agitators had declared fatal to the prosecution of the war, and fatal to the support of the army by volunteering, was changed or modified, and yet since last March they have passed most of their time in calling the world to witness that the willingness to volunteer is as great as ever; that the martial spirit of the country is in no wise abated; that the ease with which the President raised troops by merely calling for them in the first year of the war, proves the folly and wickedness of the Administration in attempting to raise them by force now, inasmuch as the feelings which prompted men to enlist in the first campaign were as active and influential still as ever. Anybody has only to look at this moment into any Copperhead newspaper, and peruse an article or letter on the Conscription to find the readiness with which volunteers can be procured, and especially in Democratic districts, as the strongest argument against the enforcement of the act.

So that we are driven to the conclusion either that during the Winter of 1861–2, the whole band, from Gov. SEYMOUR down, persistently and maliciously stated what they knew was not true when they proclaimed to the world that the Emancipation Proclamation and the Confiscation and Negro Enrollment acts, had deprived the war of the support of the country, and that no more soldiers could be procured to aid in carrying it on; or else that they now state what they know to be untrue, and full as persistently and maliciously, in alleging that volunteers can be had by asking for them. We admit that in the conduct of party warfare as they wage it, lying is necessary; but we counsel them as a measure of expediency to lie in one direction throughout. The affirmation of two directly contrary propositions in the same six months is a waste of falsehood which not even Copperheads can afford.

OUR GENERALS IN THE SOUTH.—Our New-Orleans correspondent gave a vivid account the other day of a grand demonstration in honor of Maj.-Gen. BANKS, that was lately made in the City of New-Orleans. It was not by his own soldiers, nor by office-holders, nor by contractors, but by the public schools and school-children of the Crescent city. The enthusiasm among the young Southern folks was wonderful, and only reached its climax, according to our correspondent, "when the entire mass of little fairies, as if by some preconcerted plot, and disdaining all restraint, clustered around the General like so many swarming bees around honey, and commenced fairly smothering him with kisses! It seems as if he never could get away again from that stormy little ocean of rosebuds and lilies."

Maj.-Gen. GRANT was the recipient of a grand ovation and banquet last Wednesday, from the people of the City of Memphis. The papers of that place contain long descriptions of the brilliant affair. Gen. GRANT expressed himself "profoundly gratified at the public recognition, in the City of Memphis, of the honor and authority of the United States," and pleased also to "recognize the existence of sentiments which he had so long and so ardently desired to see manifested in his department."

These manifestations in the conquered districts of the South, are very significant and valuable, and utterly disprove the assertions of the rebels that the whole people of the South entertain an ineradicable hatred to the army and people of the North. When the war is over, the most popular men in the South will be the Generals and soldiers who have crushed the rebellion, and saved the Union and the Southern people; and the most detested men will be JEFF. DAVIS and those traitors who attempted to ruin them. If Gen. GILLMORE captures Charleston, we expect that within a year or two the people of that city will elect him to Congress.

The Battle of Gettysburgh—An Anglo-Rebel Account of it.

The letter of the Southern correspondent of the London Times, describing the battle of Gettysburgh, does not perhaps contain more misstatements than was to be expected, but it certainly contains some which are too great to be passed over in silence. First and greatest is the statement that "both armies have drawn off terribly shattered from the battle-field," and that the Federal army drew off "because it feared its inability even upon the vantage ground to repel another attack." This is utterly untrue. Our army never "drew off" from the battle-field of Gettysburgh. At the close of the struggle on Friday, July 3, our army held the field and our pickets were advanced. On Saturday, according to another statement of this same correspondent, both armies staid in position, and "the big guns frowned at each other in angry silence." On that night the rebels moved off. On the next morning our forces went forward, occupied the earthworks which the rebels had built, and then turned in pursuit of their retreating forces. So far from fearing an attack upon our ground, another day would have seen our army taking the offensive; and this LEE knew, and he prudently retreated beforehand.

Again, it is stated that the ground chosen by our forces was not deliberately selected. The writer, perhaps, is excusable for a misstatement as to a matter about which he could have known nothing. We know to the contrary, and that the ground was as deliberately and wisely chosen as it was firmly held.

The correspondent exhausts all his power in describing the terrible cannonade which preceded the final charge of the rebels on Friday. He gives the number of guns engaged in it as 200. Our estimate of it was only 150. Gen. MEADE'S dispatch stated it at that number. We may credit the writer's statement, for he should have known better than we. All the more honor to those who faced its storm without flinching.

But in his account of the final charges he falls into another enormous error. He declares that Gen. PICKETT'S column "reached their destination; with a wild yell they spring into the Yankee earthworks; astride of each Federal gun rides a Confederate soldier; the group around Gen. LONGSTREET congratulates him that the advance is a complete success, and for a few moments breath is drawn more freely." This is all a myth. Not a gun was taken that day. Not a man of those two charging columns reached our lines except as a prisoner. If the group round LONGSTREET congratulated him, it was over a success of PETTIGREW'S column, for the head of that column marched as prisoners in such large mass into our lines, that it is possible it might have been mistaken from the opposite hill for a successful reaching of our lines. No such mistake could be made in reference to PICKETT'S column; and the best proof of it is, that no sooner had the surrender taken place, than the rebel batteries from the opposite hill opened upon their own men and ours mingled together, with as fierce a fire as any that day. This fact, by the way, the Times correspondent does not mention. In fact, PETTIGREW'S column, which he states to have been ten thousand strong, was the first to make the charge and the first to give way. The writer says they "perceived a large column of Federals descending the hill to flank them," and he excuses their breaking by saying that they were most of them "men who had never been seriously engaged before." This "large column" was composed of two regiments of Vermont troops which had never previously been in a battle of any kind. And so far from the destruction of PETTIGREW'S column snatching victory from PICKETT'S men, the former had broke and a large part of them surrendered so long before the latter came within reach, that one of the same regiments which had flanked PETTIGREW, was brought back after his column broke, in time to perform the same service for this second column.

The writer repeats once more his false statement that both armies "fell back on the night of the 3d to commence preparations for retreat on the 4th." And he fitly closes his account of the campaign in Maryland by giving in full Gen. LEE'S denial of there being any fight at Falling Waters, which, however, he does not deny himself.

MAURY'S DEEP-SEA SOUNDINGS.—The last ditch of the rebels is not to be in the South, but in the North, probably in New-York, most likely in Second-avenue. In other words, after they have been defeated, and have reached the last ditch on their own soil, they still look for aid and the construction of another ditch by their friends in the Northern States. Their hopeful prospect in this line is now the burden of the rebel song on both sides of the sea. It is the North which is to rush to their assistance in the final moment; it is the "mudsills" which are to sustain the Confederacy; it is the "small-fisted farmers" who are to ply the rebellious spade; it is the "greasy mechanics" who are to mend up the cracked Confederacy. It is in this view of the case that the scientific and political quack, M. F. MAURY, writes to the London Times that the prospects of the Confederates were never brighter than now. The brightness which he beholds is exclusively in the Northern heaven. "New-York is threatening armed resistance to the Federal Government; it is taking Southern ground." "Mr. LINCOLN has to keep an armed force not only in New York and Kentucky, but also in Ohio, Indiana, and other States." "He is even now marching upon Iowa." "He is likely to have occupation for all the recruits his conscription will give him in keeping down his own people,"—and so on.

Such is now the last and only hope of the rebellion. Every shrewd rebel sees it. JEFF. DAVIS knows it. Who doubts then that such a skilled conspirator, such an adroit political manipulator, such a desperate and knavish gambler as DAVIS, is playing his cards here in the North? Who doubts that he has his agents, his backers, his spies, his organs among us, who are planning and scheming with the dexterity of the Devil to befool and betray the people of the North, to force them into wranglings and distractions, to set them, under one pretext or another, against each other and against the Government, and thus to forward his own ends? He would be as great an idiot as he is a traitor if he did not do so; and that we know he is not. So it will be then—as the rebel prospects get darker in the South, the deeper will be the plots and the harder the struggles of DAVIS and his friends in the North. MAURY and all his rebel coworkers hint that the issue for the rebellion in the North is to be an indirect, a false, a shammed one. It is to be on "State's rights," on the "peace" question, on the "Conscription"—no matter on what, so it serves the end of producing a diversion against the Government, weakening it and strengthening the rebels. The people of the North should comprehend and realize this scheme, and be on the alert for these schemers. If they did, there would be no danger of its success. Even as it is, there is but very little danger of it.

THE PRESIDENT'S LETTER.

An Argument Addressed to the Opponents of the War Policy of the Administration.

Letter to the Union Convention at Springfield, Ill.

EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON, Aug. 16, 1863.

Hon. James C. Conkling:

MY DEAR SIR: Your letter inviting me to attend a mass meeting of unconditional Union men, to be held at the Capital of Illinois on the 3d September, has been received. It would be very agreeable to me thus to meet my old friends at my own home, but I cannot just now be absent from this city so long as a visit there would require.

The meeting is to be of all those who maintain unconditional devotion to the Union; and I am sure that my old political friends will thank me for tendering, as I do, the nation's gratitude to those other noble men whom no partisan malice or partisan hope can make false to the nation's life.

There are those who are dissatisfied with me. To such I would say, you desire peace, and you blame me that we do not have it. But how can we attain it? There are but three concievable ways. First, to suppress the rebellion by force of arms. This I am trying to do. Are you for it? If you are, so we are agreed. If you are not for it, a second way is to give up the Union. I am against this. If you are, you should say so plainly. If you are not for force, nor yet for dissolution, there only remains some imaginary compromise.

I do not believe that any compromise embracing the maintenance of the Union is now possible. All that I learn leads to a directly opposite belief. The strength of the rebellion is its military, its army. That army dominates all the country and all the people within its range.

Any offer of terms made by any man or men within that range in opposition to that army, is simply nothing for the present; because such man or men have no power whatever to enforce their side of a compromise, if one were made with them.

To illustrate: Suppose refugees from the South and peace men of the North get together in convention and frame and proclaim a compromise embracing a restoration of the Union. In what way can that compromise be used to keep Gen. LEE'S army out of Pennsylvania?

Gen. MEADE'S army can keep LEE'S army out of Pennsylvania; and I think can ultimately drive it out of existence. But no paper compromise to which the controllers of Gen. LEE'S army are not agreed, can at all affect that army. In an effort at such compromise we would waste time, which the enemy would improve to our disadvantage; and that would be all.

A compromise, to be effective, must be made either with those who control the rebel army, or with the people first liberated from the domination of that army by the success of our army. Now, allow me to assure you that no word or intimation from the rebel army, or from any of the men controlling it, in relation to any peace compromise, has ever come to my knowledge or belief. All charges and intimations to the contrary are deceptive and groundless. And I promise you that if any such proposition shall hereafter come, it shall not be rejected and kept secret from you. I freely acknowledge myself to be the servant of the people, according to the bond of service, the United States Constitution; and that, as such, I am responsible to them.

But, to be plain. You are dissatisfied with me about the negro. Quite likely there is a difference of opinion between you and myself upon that subject. I certainly wish that all men could be free, while you I suppose, do not. Yet, I have neither adopted nor proposed any measure which is not consistent with even your view, provided that you are for the Union.

I suggested compensated emancipation, to which you replied that you wished not to be taxed to buy negroes. But I had not asked you to be taxed to buy negroes, except in such way as to save you from greater taxation to save the Union exclusively by other means.

You dislike the Emancipation Proclamation, and perhaps would have it retracted. You say it is unconstitutional. I think differently. I think that the Constitution invests its Commander-in-Chief with the law of war in time of war. The most that can be said, if so much, is that slaves are property. Is there, has there ever been, any question that by the law of water, property, both of enemies and friends, may be taken when needed?

And is it not needed whenever taking it helps us or hurts the enemy? Armies the world over destroy enemy's property when they cannot use it; and even destroy their own to keep it from the enemy. Civilized belligerents do all in their power to help themselves or hurt the enemy, except a few things regarded as barbarous or cruel. Among the exceptions are the massacre of vanquished foes and non-combatants, male and female.

But the Proclamation, as law, is valid or is not valid. If it is not valid, it needs no retraction. If it is valid, it cannot be retracted, any more than the dead can be brought to life. Some of you profess to think that its retraction would operate favorably for the Union. Why better after the retraction than before the issue?

There was more than a year and a half of trial to suppress the rebellion before the Proclamation was issued, the last one hundred days of which passed under an explicit notice that it was coming unless averted by those in revolt returning to their allegiance. The war has certainly progressed as favorably for us since the issue of the Proclamation as before.

I know as fully as one can know the opinions of others, that some of the commanders of our armies in the field who have given us our most important victories, believe the emancipation policy and the aid of colored troops constitute the heaviest blows yet dealt to the rebellion; and that at least one of those important successes could not have been achieved when it was but for the aid of black soldiers.

Among the commanders holding these views are some who have never had any affinity with what is called Abolitionists, or with "Republican party politics," but who hold them purely as military opinions. I submit their opinions as being entitled to some weight against the objections often urged that emancipation and arming the blacks are unwise as military measures, and were not adopted as such in good faith.

You say that you will not fight to free negroes. Some of them seem to be willing to fight for you—but no matter. Fight you then, exclusively, to serve the Union. I issued the Proclamation on purpose to aid you in saving the Union.

Whenever you shall have conquered all resistance to the Union, if I shall urge you to continue fighting, it will be an apt time then for you to declare that you will not fight to free negroes.

I thought that in your struggle for the Union, to whatever extent the negroes should cease helping the enemy, to that extent it weakened the enemy in his resistance to you. Do you think differently? I thought that whatever negroes can be got to do as soldiers, leaves just so much less for white soldiers to do in saving the Union. Does it appear otherwise to you? But negroes, like other people, act upon motives. Why should they do anything for us if we will do nothing for them? If they stake their lives for us they must be prompted by the strongest motive, even the promise of their freedom. And the promise being made, must be kept.

The signs look better. The Father of Waters again goes unvexed to the sea. Thanks to the great Northwest for it. Not yet wholly to them. Three hundred miles up they met New-England, Empire, Kiystone and Jersey, hewing their way right and left. The sunny South, too, in more colors than one, also lent a hand. On the spot their part of the history was jotted down in black and white. The job was a great national one, and let none be banned who bore an honorable part in it. And while those who have cleared the great river may well be proud, even that is not all.

It is hard to say that anything has been more bravely and better done than at Antietam, Murfreesboro, Gettysburgh, and on many fields of lesser note.

Nor must Uncle Sam's web feet be forgotten. At all the waters' margins they have been present, not only on the deep sea, the broad bay, and the rapid river, but also up the narrow muddy bayou, and wherever the ground was a little damp, they have been and made their tracks.

Thanks to all. For the great Republic—for the principles by which it lives and keeps alive—for man's vast future—thanks to all.

Peace does not appear so distant as did. I hope it it will come soon, and come to stay; and so come as to be worth the keeping in all future time.

I will then have been proved that, among freemen, there can be no successful appeal from the ballot to the bullet, and that they who take such appeal are sure to lose their case, and pay the cost.

And then there will be some black men who can remember that, with silent tongue, and clenched teeth, and steady eye, and well poised bayonet, they have helped mankind on to this great consummation, while I fear there will be some white men unable to forget that, with malignant heart and deceitful speech, they have striven to hinder it.

Still, let us not be over sanguine of a speedy final triumph. Let us be quite sober. Let us diligently apply the means, never doubting that a just God, in his own good time, will give us the rightful result.

Yours, very truly, A. LINCOLN.

Amusements.

WINTER GARDEN.—Mr. JOHN BROUGHAM—lost to sight though to memory dear—loses no chance of communicating with his old admirers on this side of the Atlantic. Every artist who visits Europe comes back with a play from his pen, and as all the theatres in New-York are "star" theatres (with the exception of the respective establishments of Wallack and Barnum) it is almost a mathematical certainty that every play written by Mr. BROUGHAM will, at some time or other, find its way to the Metropolitan stage. It may be stated, fondly but sadly, that they are not always good. Lately, however, he has given us the "Duke's Motto," and last but not least a dramatic version of Miss BRADDON'S well-known novel called "Lady Audley's Secret." The latter was produced on Tuesday night at the Winter Garden, for the double purpose of giving that admirable actress, Mrs. D. P. BOWERS, a new rôle, and of introducing a spectral illusion. Both these meritorious ends were accomplished in a satisfactory manner. The lady gave a vivid and powerful interpretation of Miss BRADDON'S heroine, and the Ghost behaved with propriety. It is hardly necessary to say more, except that Mr. L. P. BARRETT, Mr. DAVENPORT, Mr. NORTON, and other members of this company contributed to the success of the evening, and that the "Mystery of Audley Court" will be repeated until further notice.

THE ALHAMBRA PAVILION.—Mr. NIXON has erected a handsome tent on Fourteenth-street, opposite Irving-place, which he has christened the Alhambra. An excellent equestrian troupe and a curious band of Arab gymnasts give performances here twice a day. Those who are fond of a first-rate circus entertainment cannot do better than patronize Mr. NIXON'S mammoth establishment.

NEWS FROM WASHINGTON.

OUR SPECIAL WASHINGTON DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, Wednesday, Sept. 2.

A DISASTROUS BLOW AT HIGH OFFICIALS.

Secretary Stanton has removed from office the Quartermaster-General Meigs. He has sent into exile the old fogy Ripley, Chief of the Ordnance Bureau, who combatted all new ideas in the fabrication of firearms, artillery and projectiles. The sweeping blow which removed these two officials took out of place also the Surgeon-General Hammond—not to speak of Clymer. Such an operation is unparalleled in the memory of man.

PAYMENT OF THE TROOPS.

Warrants for the payment of all the troops in the field will be issued from the Treasury to-morrow. Secretary Chase will not allow the army to want for money.

THE FIVE-TWENTIES.

The subscriptions to the five-twenty bonds in August were, in round numbers, twenty-two millions.

DEMAND NOTES.

The quantity of old demand notes now outstanding is two millions four hundred and seventy-five thousand dollars, held principally in the rebel States, and partially in California.

DISPATCHES TO THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

WASHINGTON, Wednesday, Sept. 2.

SALE POSTPONED.

The life interest of seventeen different owners of valuable real estate in Washington was to have been sold to-day. A large number of persons were in attendance; but after the District-Marshal had read the decree of the Court, the Provost-Marshal produced a letter from the military authorities, stating that they would give up no part of the property of which they now have possession. A postponement of the sale till Wednesday next was then announced.

NAVAL CAPTURES.

Capt. Walker, of the De Soto, advises the Navy Department of the capture of the steamer Alice Vivian, for violation of the blockade. She represented herself as from Mobile bound to Havana, laden with cotton, and admitted she had thrown her papers overboard. Among the passengers transferred to the De Soto were several of the Staff of Gen. Slaughter, of the rebel army. Gen. Slaughter himself had embarked on board the steamer with all his Staff; but a few hours previous to her leaving Mobile Bay he returned to the city, with the intention of rejoining the vessel as soon as he could remove his baggage thither. But for this he too would have been captured. His destination was Texas to raise a brigade. Other naval captures are also reported.

NAVAL ORDERS.

Commander Thatcher has been ordered to the West Gulf Blockading Squadron, to command the steam frigate Colorado.

Commander Bowers has been detached from the Naval Rendezvous at Portsmouth, N. H., and ordered to command the receiving ship Vandalia.

Commander Leroy has been ordered to command the sloop-of-war Oneida.

Lieut.-Commander E. P. Williams has been detached from the Powhatan and ordered to command the Huron.

Lieut.-Commander Charles E. Fleming has received preparatory orders to command the Sagamore.

Lieut.-Commander Robt. Boyd has been detached from the receiving ship at Boston and ordered to the Powhatan.

The State Convention in Missouri.

JEFFERSON CITY, Wednesday, Sept. 2.

In Convention this morning, a Committee of one from each County in the State was appointed to visit Washington and lay before the President the grievances of the loyal people of Missouri.

A resolution was passed inviting the Union men of Kansas to send a delegation to Washington in conjunction with the Committee appointed by the Convention.

Henry A. Clover, of St. Louis; Arnold Krekel, of St. Charles, and David Wagner, of Lewis County, were nominated by acclamation for Judges of the Supreme Court.

A resolution was adopted instructing the State Executive Committee of the Emancipation party to prepare and publish an address, calling upon the people to form State organizations to give direction, efficacy and power to the radical reforms in our Federal relations.

A resolution was also adopted providing for a Committee of five to prepare a system of organization for the friends of freedom in this State, which shall take cognizance not only of the dangers now impending, but for future emergency and trial.

The Committee on Resolutions reported a platform in substance as follows:

The first sustains the Government in a vigorous prosecution of the war to the complete and final suppression of the rebellion.

The second denounces the military policy pursued in this State, and the delegation by the General Government of military powers to a provisional State organization, the whole tendency of which is to throw back the people under the control of pro-slavery and reactionary influences, to paralyze the Federal power in suppressing rebellion, to prolong a reign of terror throughout a large section, and to extend comfort to those meditating hostility to the National authority in other States.

The third indorses the President's Emancipation Proclamation; asks for its prompt execution; will support no one not pledged to its principles; believes those liberated under it cannot be reduced to Slavery, and refuses to sustain any reorganization of the country that does not embody the principles therein contained.

The fourth refers to French influence in Mexico, and calls upon the Government to resist it.

The fifth arraigns the Provisional Government as untrue to the loyal people of the States, and gives reasons therefor.

The seventh favors a constitutional amendment, disfranchising all who have taken up arms against the Government, or adhered to the enemies thereof.

The eighth demands of the Legislature to call a new convention to take into consideration the grievances under which the State now labors; and in case of their refusal nothing can rob the people of their right of the people to act in the matter.

A committee was appointed to attend the Union meeting at Springfield, Illinois, to-morrow.

Additional resolutions were passed requesting Gov. Gamble and Lieut.-Gov. Hall to resign, and the President to remove Gen. Schofield; denouncing Quantrell's raid on Lawrence, expressing the warmest sympathy with the survivors of the massacre; inviting all lovers of free labor, free soil and free speech to seek homes in Missouri, and guaranteeing them protection; thanking the gallant soldiers of Missouri; thanking the President for arming the negroes to kill rebels; warning the Legislature against disregarding the will of the people; requesting the radical members thereof to vote for B. Gratz Brown and Benjamin Loan for United States Senators.

The Committee on Public Safety reported a resolution that, in view of the serious complications arising out of the hostility on the part of the Provisional Government to the National authority and policy, and the absence of protection from inroads from guerrillas, we hereby instruct the Convention to appoint a General Committee of Public Safety, composed of one from each Congressional District, whose duty it shall be to confer with the loyal men of the State, to organize and arm them for the protection of the State, and in the event of relief being obtained from our present troubles, to call upon the people of the State to act in their sovereign capacity, and take such measures for redress as shall be deemed necessary.

The proceedings of the Convention were characterized by the most enthusiastic demonstration of fervent loyalty and earnestness.

IMPORTANT FROM MEXICO.

Occupation of Tampico by the French.

From the New-Orleans Picayune, Aug. 22.

The schooner Henry Travers arrived at Quarantine yesterday, six days from Tampico. A telegram from her states that the French occupied Tampico Aug. 9. We have, as yet, no particulars, and do not know if there was any resistance or opposition to the landing of the French forces. The road from Tampico to San Luis is quite as direct, quite as near as that from Vera Cruz to the City of Mexico, and is probably more feasible for travel, as there is no La Puebla on the way. The occupation of Tampico is only another move upon the Mexican chess-board, and it was made, undoubtedly, without a check.

Arrival of the Morning Star.

The United States mail steamer Morning Star, A. D. Perkins Commanding, from New-Orleans on the morning of the 27th ult., arrived at this port last night. Our New-Orleans files furnish no news of importance.

Rebels in Kentucky.

LOUISVILLE, Wednesday, Sept. 2.

Hughes, with from 50 to 100 rebels, appeared in Bucksville to-day. It is reported that Hamilton, with from 500 to 600 rebels, has reached Jamestown, near Frankinsville. No further particulars have been received.

SURGICAL AND PRACTICAL OBSERVATIONS ON THE DISEASES OF THE EAR, WITH THE NEW MODE OF TREATING DEAFNESS.

TO WHICH IS ADDED AN APPENDIX,

Containing a Treatise on Catarrh and the New System of treating it

BY J. E. VON EISENBERG, M. D.

of No. 816 Broadway.

We are therefore, in most instances, precluded from exercising our skill and knowledge to benefit our patients; on the other hand, the confidence of the public is so much abused by a class of self-extolling practitioners, who pretend to have discovered infallible means of curing diseases such as we have described, that innumerable difficulties surround the subject. Specifics for all the ills of life have been discovered daily and hourly; and if the public Press is to be taken as our guide—for not a sheet issues from the Press but amongst the advertisements will be found the bold assertion of some loud proclaimer of his power—unguents, liniments lotions and injections are all brought before the astonished world as possessing infallible power for curing the deaf. There is necromancy, witchcraft and marvelous power in everything he propounds. He has never been known to fail, according to his own assertion; and what chance has he who has devoted his life to inquiry, has honestly to confess that the deviations of nature surpass his expectations, that her ways are often inscrutable, and all he can do is to study, to learn, and to attempt to cure, without professing that every malady is subjected to his superior skill?

It is generally first necessary, even in acute diseases of the ear, to make a proper investigation. This is the plan I myself generally pursue for eliciting all the particulars, and which is pursued by all the aurists in Europe, so as to be acquainted with every particular previous to forming a diagnois of the disease of the ear.

First—State of health; temperament; if any relations are deaf; duration of the affection; supposed cause; if it has increased by sudden paroxysms or by imperceptible degrees; examination of the hearing distance; surface of the membrana tympani; if air is heard, by means of the Otoscope, to enter the tympanic cavity; state of mucous membrane of the fauces; previous treatment; if discharge from ear; quantity and condition of the cerumen; state of the dermis and osseous walls.

This examination will acquaint us if we possess means by which we can alleviate the suffering, and sometimes gain time, and give the system, which has suffered from sympathy, time to recover. We must oftentimes devote as much consideration to the means of palliation as to those of cure; and we shall find that we often gain reputation from the public, and estimation in the eyes of our patients, from affording them momentary benefit, as much as from complete restoration to hearing.

Patients who thought themselves completely incurable, have actually been examined by others who pronounced the cause of their deafness to be perforation of the tympanum. After a careful examination, I found the impediment to arise from a diminished supply of cerumen or wax, which caused a dry, rustling sound in the ear, particularly during mastication, as well as ringing noises in the head, unaccompanied by pain in the organ itself, but a dull sensation, and, extraordinary as it may appear, there was a total absence of noise when the atmosphere was clear; and, by exciting a due quantity of secretion, I restored their perfect hearing.

As this diseased or disordered condition of the cerumenous glands is often symptomatic of constitutional affections, so it is therefore requisite not only to inspect the parts engaged in the local malady, but also to ascertain, if possible, the primary cause of the complaint, whether it be local or general, and to inquire into the diseases to which the patient may be subject; in fact, to ascertain thoroughly, as I said above, the history of the case, before the practitioner proceeds to treatment, or subjects his patient to syringing, which should not be practiced in any case, as a matter of course, but only after ascertaining that the meatus contains extraneous matters which cannot be removed by any other means.

It often happens that the symptoms of deafness—noises in the ears, &c.—are present in two opposite cases, namely: when there is a redundancy of wax and a consequent impaction, and where there is a deficiency of wax, with or without a pathological change in the character of the cerumen. In this latter case syringing will cause mischief; indeed, many instances have come under my notice in which injury has been done by indiscriminate and prolonged use of the syringe.

Most urgently do I recommend those who are afflicted with deafness, however slight the impediment may seem, however easily it may be cured by an experienced aurist, never to have recourse to a syringe. They may be assured, though, there may be a vast number of instances in which no sad consequences has attended upon the syringing; yet there are so many and such serious events which arise out of it, that no one who has regard for his hearing and for the comfort of not suffering from a noise in the head, should venture upon it. One sad termination outweighs a whole catalogue of fortunate escapes; for it has frequently happened that water forcibly thrown against the membrane, when unprotected by wax or a foreign body, has produced injurious effects which have been more or less lasting. The empirical syringing, the unscientific employment of this frequently valuable remedy, has often excited acute disease in a predisposed tympanum, and has even induced fatal results. I therefore conceive it of more importance than any rules I may lay down; it is a maxim which I would have a starling taught to repeat; it is a sentence which should be repeated to every one suffering from deafness or noises in the head; it is a voice which should be echoed on every occasion—"Be careful not to use the syringe to your ears!" If, after such a warning, there should be any venturesome enough to neglect it, the danger be upon their own heads; but the repentance will come too late.

I give such original views as present themselves to my mind; and if, upon mature reflection, I think it right to express any opinions which may be at variance with those generally received, I hope that the desire I have in view, of being useful, will plead my excuse. I shall have fulfilled my anxious desire to be of use to my fellow-beings if I am the means of inducing parents to take proper precautions, and of alleviating those sufferings to which so many are victims.

It would be misplaced here to allude to and describe the operation as I am in the habit of performing it, in order to show its great practical value, not only in the treatment of partial deafness, but affording pretty certain means of restoring the hearing in the most obstinate deafness; I will therefore postpone it to a chapter hereafter.

The celebrated Abbé Carton, director of the Institute of the Deaf and Dumb of Brussels, to whom the instruction of the deaf and dumb owe so much, succeeded in developing to such a remarkable degree the intelligence of a poor girl, deaf, dumb, and blind, by merely placing his finger on the larynx of the unfortunate, that she could not only hear sounds, but distinguish everything that was said. It seemed as if nature wished to demonstrate that, by depriving her of so much, it still recompensed for all by a mere freak.

Medicine has hitherto had little or no share in the attempt of curing deafness; it has always been sounds and vibration, and nothing more. The celebrated Itard tried no other means to restore hearing than by accustoming it to a succession of sounds from metal or wood; but our object is to accustom it to the human voice, in which all of these experiments have failed, and it has disheartened, at the end of a long practice, physicians who began with enthusiastic hopes. This shows that the hearing, an organ so delicate, an instrument so perfect, is a much better appreciator than all the acoustical instruments of the elements of sound and of the human voice. What we have to consider is the possibility of being able to reëstablish the sense of hearing to such a degree as to be sufficient for the deaf to hear themselves and others speak, so that they may be able to enter into oral communication.

Mr. Saunders, in his work entitled The Anatomy and the Diseases of the Ear, says: "That the causes of the loss of hearing are involved in the greatest obscurity, and that we are almost destitute of information concerning the morbid changes to which the ear is liable;" and in expressing the impossibility of curing any of the internal parts in the ear by manual operation, says: "It by no means follows that such cases are irremediable; many morbid changes of the vital organs of the body, equally inscrutable as the ear in the living subject, are, when we know the symptoms indicating their existence, successfully treated by the operation of internal remedies; and I have no doubt that deafness, in various instances, depends on morbific changes, which are curable by the general treatment of the constitution."

If Mr. Saunders could be a witness of the progress of science in the branch of Aural Surgery, in which men of the highest medical education have since embarked, and diligent inquiry has been made, so as to enable us to restore the hearing to delicate and nervous persons without constitutional treatment, he would find that a great object, indeed, is gained. Still, whatever skill we may possess, and how much experience soever we may have, we ought not to be rash, but ought to reflect. It requires the utmost sagacity and vigilance on the part of the operator, as it may be necessary to stimulate by the Sulphur Fumigator, (for which purpose I had the good fortune to invent an instrument,) for the affected surface of the internal parts may be very extensive, and its sudden suppuration may be followed by giddiness, rumbling noise in the head, and even by more serious affections of the brain. For this reason, considerable judgment and experience are requisite, and no general rules can be laid down. There are many minutiæ upon which I will have occasion to dwell hereafter, because they are opinions which cannot be too forcibly impressed upon those to whom the enjoyment of life's best blessings is not only an object as far as they themselves are concerned, but who would guard the young, and those who are dearest to them, from encountering irreparable sufferings which, by caution and attention, may be avoided.

There can be no doubt that the different states of atmosphere act upon the organ of hearing when there is a preëxisting disposition to disease, as there is a texture of infinite importance which assists in giving pliancy and elasticity, and which is an essential part of animal structure; this is the cellular substance. From the lowest grade of vegetable life we trace this tissue, consisting of cells formed of delicate membranes. The first genus of organic products is thus constituted, an aggregation of cells entering into the structure. It is the medium of communication between the vascular and the nervous system. Some of the German medical men have of late investigated this subject with peculiar ardor. It is on this that electricity has a wondrous influence, most particularly in damp weather, when we are constantly giving up the natural electricity of the system; for such is the tendency to a general equilibrium of caloric and electricity, that the ear is continually in a state of change of giving off or receiving them. Few things are more thrilling than the appearance of the large sparks of electric fire and the loud crack which occurs when you comb dry hair, more particularly that of females, in the dark. The peculiar blue light is singularly visible. A long train of fire seems to issue forth, and not unfrequently this is accompanied by a peculiar tingling sensation in the Auricle. Deaf persons particularly exhibit this phenomenon—deaf females more especially; and there seems to be some connection between the deafness and the nervous system generally. We find such persons more than usually listless, given to yawning, and incapable of following any pursuit with vigor. They are liable to glandular swellings, and to attacks of inflammation of the tonsils, throat, Eustachian passages, and to cause a morbid condition of the mucous membranes of the throat and ear, also obstruction of the nose, showing what a sympathy exists in these different organs, singular as such effect may seem. Every medical practitioner, upon looking over his roll of patients, will find confirmation of it.

But the phenomena of the diseases of the ear are, as the inquirer into that branch of philosophy acknowledges, connected more or less with hygrometrical facts. In a work to which we have elsewhere alluded, as one from which most of the knowledge which Aurists have derived of diseases of the ear, is a very curious, and at the same time a remarkably well drawn up view of the effects of the atmosphere on the organ of hearing, exhibiting the influence of its pressure upon the system generally, and upon the ear particularly, being, as it is, continually exposed. The weight of atmosphere upon the human body is equal to TWO THOUSAND TWO HUNDRED AND SIXTY pounds, and therefore the pressure upon each square inch amounts to nearly nineteen pounds; if we then take the proportion of the ear, upon which the weight of the atmosphere is more or less increased, we shall find that there is, under certain circumstances, such increased pressure that the internal parts of this delicate organ must feel the full force. To those who have known what the simple exhaustion of a small quantity of air in a cupping glass effects as to the sensation of weight on the body, there can be but little difficulty in comprehending what changes may result from the weight of the atmospheric air upon the ear, and the effect that it has on the minute capillary vessels, and the small nervous febrilla, which exist to such an extent in the internal ear. This is a question, however, into which I have no inclination to enter; sufficient is it that those who are suffering from partial deafness only should be reminded that they ought to seek the means of relief which can be afforded them before they become totally deprived of hearing, as, according to the observations of Itard, a certain number of deaf persons are not deprived of hearing, but only suffer from a feebleness of Audition, and that this natural feebleness becomes greater by reason of the total inaction of this sense, from whence results the natural demonstration that, in order to reëstablish the energy of the ear, it is necessary for it to undergo a formal method of treatment. We have no hesitation, from our own experience, not only to confirm what this great Aurist said, but we may add that there are many totally deaf persons who consider that not only is their case the worst, but give up all hope of ever receiving any benefit, and it often happens that they are the most easy cases for the restoration of hearing.

Who Minds a Cold?

It seems a small affair, and in consequence is usually allowed to have its own way, and yet how frequently a neglected cold ends in bronchitis or consumption! Why not take a cold in time, then, and by using at once Dr. D. JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT, which for thirty years has been a standard remedy for all coughs and colds, avoid these dreadful alternatives?

WHAT IS MEANT BY BRONCHITIS

is any inflammation of the bronchia, or passages which convey air to the lungs. In its earlier stages this disease is commonly called a cold, or a cold in the breast. It usually comes on with a little hoarseness, followed by a moderate cough, with slight feelings of heat or soreness about the throat and chest. If not arrested, the cough becomes one of the most prominent symptoms, as well as the most painful and distressing; the inflammation increases in intensity, until it finally interferes with the access of air to the lung cells, when the vital powers soon give way. In most of the stages of this disease Dr. Jayne's Expectorant effects a speedy cure by producing a free and easy expectoration, suppressing the cough and allaying the fever. A fair trial is all that is asked.

IN CONSUMPTION AND ALL PULMONARY COMPLAINTS,

DR. JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT will afford immediate relief by removing the difficulty of breathing and producing an easy expectoration, whereby all irritating and obstructing matters are removed from the lungs. Having maintained its reputation, in all parts of the world, for over a quarter of a century, it is confidently recommended as the best remedy ever offered for the diseases it professes to cure. Sold by agents and druggists everywhere, from whom may also be obtained Dr. D. JAYNE'S SANATIVE PILLS, a prompt and effectual cure for costiveness, sick headache, and all billious affections.

AGAIN NEW TESTIMONY,

READ.

HARLEM, July 30, 1863.

I have been deaf for over TWENTY-FIVE YEARS, and Dr. Von Eisenberg operated on both of my ears without the slightest pain—a thing that I could not believe could be done, I now hear well, and feel as I never felt for the last twenty years. The dexterity and skill with which the operation was performed evince the highest practical ability. I hear perfectly. It is now over a month since the operation, and I continue to feel as well as ever.

CATARRH CURED.

NEW-YORK, Aug. 23, 1863.

I have been suffering for the last three years from a severe Catarrh, with a continual dullness in my head, a tightness across my chest, a weight over my eyes, which were weak, watery and very painful. My nostrils were continually obstructed with a pouring of fluid. I have had frequent sneezing, hoarseness of my voice, generally attended with spitting, often with a fullness of my throat, together with a soreness and a dropping. Dr. Von Eisenberg has cured me of all these disagreeable sufferings. I now feel a new life. The treatment of Dr. Von Eisenberg is as skillful as it is successful; it is impossible to overrate the benefit I have received at his hands. I heartily recommend any one suffering like myself to place themselves under Dr. Von Eisenberg's care, with a certainty of being speedily cured. I give this with gratitude and pleasure. I cannot forbear again saying that my voice, which was hoarse and thick when I applied to Dr. Von Eisenberg, is now clear and good; indeed, I feel abundantly satisfied.

JAMES LITTLE,
No. 245 7th-st., New-York.

"NEW-YORK, May 7, 1863.

I have great pleasure to testify to the skill of Dr. Von Eisenberg. I went into his office almost completely deaf, and came out with my perfect hearing. It is nearly twelve months since, and the hearing is perfect. The operation, which lasted two or three minutes in each of my ears, gave me no pain whatsoever. I, with confidence, recommend all sufferers to place themselves under Dr. Von Eisenberg's unsurpassing skill.

SAMUEL C. HUNT,
No. 6 Meserole-av., Greenpoint, L. I."

NO. 134 ALLEN-ST., NEW-YORK, Feb. 9, 1863.

I have been completely deaf in one ear, and partially so in the other, for above seventeen years, with a disagreeable discharge from both ears, combined with continual rumbling noise in the head, for which I have been treated by a most eminent practitioner in the City without the slightest relief.

I consulted Dr. Von Eisenberg, but I must candidly say that I had no faith in his success when I did so. It is, therefore, due to Dr. Von Eisenberg to acknowledge that I am entirely cured; also, that he displayed that skill and knowledge which have procured for him such an unrivaled reputation. As I have had an opportunity of comparing his mode of treatment with that of others, I can truly state that it is not only superior, but the principles which direct his mode of restoring the hearing are, in my opinion, certain.

JOHN TAYLOR.

NEW-YORK, July 19, 1862.

This certifies that my mother has been for some time afflicted with partial deafness, suffering from pain, and rumbling noises in the head, together with other indications of a total loss of hearing. Dr. Von Eisenberg removed from her ears a great quantity of matter, together with coagulated blood, relieving her instantaneously, and all without pain. It is with grateful thanks that I give this testimony to his skill.

CARROLL J. POST, No. 28 South-st.

SIGHT RESTORED.

JUNE 25, 1863.

My daughter brought me to Dr. Von Eisenberg almost completely blind in both eyes. I could not bear the pain nor the light. I am completely cured by Dr. Von Eisenberg, and called now to express my gratitude to the Doctor for his skill and unremitting attention, by which I recovered one of the most precious senses to me after being deprived of it for four years. It is only due to Dr. Von Eisenberg to state that I have tried several physicians in vain. I shall be happy to bear personal testimony to Dr. Von Eisenberg's unrivaled success to any lady or gentleman who will call on me.

CHRONIC CATARRH CURED.

READ.

NEW-YORK, March 20, 1863.

"This is to certify, that I have suffered from very severe CHRONIC CATARRH, with a dull heaviness in the head. I felt my nose completely stopped up accompanied by continual soreness of the throat, the chills stealing over me with occasional hot flushes, a great tightness of the chest and pain, so much so, that every one thought it was consumption. Having heard of the great cures performed by Dr. Von Eisenberg, I consulted him with but little hope of a cure. I am now happy to be enabled to add my testimonial to the great number already in the Doctor's possession, as to his scientific and successful mode of treatment, as he has shown in my case that skill and knowledge which have procured for him so great a reputation. I am so entirely restored to perfect health that I do most sincerely recommend all sufferers from CHRONIC CATARRH and SORE THROAT to apply at once to Dr. Von Eisenberg with a certainty of being cured."

BALM OF THOUSAND FLOWERS,

Is a delightful compound, highly and delicately scented by its own ingredients, for use in the toilet.

FOR THE TEETH, it is far superior, and more medicinal, than any preparation yet known. It quickly renders them white as alabaster, removing tartar, preventing ulceration and decay of the teeth, and perfuming the breath.

FOR SHAVING, the Balm gives a rich, penetrating lather, and has no equal in rendering the beard soft and tender.

FOR THE COMPLEXION, it will effectually remove pimples, tan and freckles, imparting beauty and health to the skin.

FOR THE NURSERY. No article is more suitable for suffering infants, to promote cleanliness and health, than the PALM OF THOUSAND FLOWERS. It is far preferable to spirits, lotions, Castile soap, and similar cosmetics.

THE
LIFE AND MILITARY CAREER
OF
THOMAS JONATHAN JACKSON
BY MARKINFIELD ADDEY.
With Portrait, 12mo, cloth, $1.

The author is Mr. Markinfield Addey, an Englishman, who has been for several years connected with the New-York press. The work embraces Jackson's great military campaign, beginning with the Mexican war, and closing with the battle of Chancellorsville, where he was mortally wounded. The life of such a man cannot fail to be an instructive one, pointing as it does in unmistakable terms to the grand moral lesson, that in whatever situation of life, where there is a concentration of energies, although but ordinary talent, it is sure to gain for him who adopts that course, honor and renown. Without a thorough devotion, a rigid self-denial, in short, a complete throwing in of himself, body and soul, as it were, Jackson would never have entered the Temple of Fame. This life is a terrible fight, and he who will run the race and seize the prize must be a "Stonewall" Jackson in his way, having always one object in view, that of making himself felt. We look forward to a perusal of this work with no ordinary interest, feeling at the same time what little satisfaction "the pomp and circumstance of war" brings to the soldier at the final struggle, and how little smooths

"Life's stormy passage to the grave."

CERTIFICATE.

This is to certify that about 18 months ago, I commenced using STERLING'S AMBROSIA. My hair was short, thin, and rapidly falling off. I had tried many Hair Tonics, Invigorators, &c., without receiving any benefit. Soon after using the Ambrosia, my hair ceased falling out, and commenced growing so rapidly as to astonish me. Now my hair is thick, soft and glossy, and is five feet and four inches in length—when let down reaching to the floor. This wonderful result I attribute solely to the use of STERLING'S AMBROSIA, as since I have commenced using it I have applied nothing else to my hair.

SPECIAL NOTICE—TO THE PUBLIC.—THE undersigned having met with complete success in his efforts to supersede the necessity of ash-boxes and other vessels for the reception of ashes and household refuse matter, by the experiments made in the Eleventh, Fourteenth and Eighteenth Wards, and it having been demonstrated that by his plan the City can be freed from the appearance on our sidewalks of these unnecessary incumbrances, while escaping their pestiferous odors, takes this opportunity of calling the attention of the public to the particulars of the following notice now in course of distribution throughout the City, and of asking a general cooperation on the part of all citizens in enabling the undersigned to carry the same into effect. PRIVATE DISEASES CURED IN THE shortest possible time, by Dr. WARD & CO., No. 50 Lispenard-st., near Broadway, without the use of Mercury, loss of time or change of diet. Dr. WARD, from the hospitals of London, Paris and Edinburgh, is the discoverer of the only certain and reliable remedies for diseases of a private character. In 28 years' practice he has cured more cases of Secret Diseases and Wrong Treatment than all others combined. I can and will cure you in less time and expense than any one can or will, and those who have been robbed of their money and health, call; it will take but little money and time to restore you. If you have been unfortunate, call at once. By his special experience in this much neglected branch of medical science, he is enabled to guarantee a cure in the most complicated cases. Involuntary emissions stopped in a short time. Sufferers from Impotency, or loss of sexual power, restored to full vigor in a few weeks. Permanently and speedily cured by a new treatment. PRIVATE CONSULTATION.—DR. HUNTER has for thirty years confined his attention to diseases of a certain class, in which he has treated no less than fifty thousand cases without an instance of failure. His great remedy, HUNTER'S RED DROP, cures certain diseases when regular treatment and all other remedies fail; cures without dieting or restriction in the habits of the patient; cures without the disgusting and sickening effects of all other remedies; cures in new cases in less than six hours; cures without the dreadful consequent effects of mercury, but possesses the peculiarly valuable property of annihilating the rank and poisonous taint that the blood is sure to absorb unless his remedy is used. That is what he claims for it, and what no other will accomplish. Its value in this respect has become so well known, that scientific men in every department of medical knowledge begin to appreciate it, for hardly a week passes that he is not consulted by druggists, chemists and physicians in regard to some pitiful patient who has exhausted the whole field of the faculty, and still the disease will appear. Its popularity is so great that there is not a quack doctor in the City that has not attacked it, and when they find their lies are not so easily swallowed, they then pretend that they can make it. It is $1 a vial, and cannot be obtained genuine anywhere but at the old office, No. 3 Division-st. Book for 15 three-cent stamps, 300 pages, 100 colored illustrations. The best work out.

With this the draft for the Second General District terminated, and after some complimentary remarks from District-Marshal SAMUEL T. MADDOX and an expression of thanks for kind attentions received by the Press, the office closed at 5½ P. M., amid the cheers of the throng. All passed pleasantly as a summer's evening.

Conclusion of the Draft in the First Congressional District.

The drafting in the First Congressional District, which has been progressing for the last three days, was concluded yesterday by the drawing of the First Sub-District, which consists of that portion of Long Island included in the County of Queens

This county, for convenience, was further subdivided into smaller districts, designated numerically. The following table shows the number of these Sub-Districts, together with the number of persons enrolled in each:

Names of Towns.	No. of Sub-Districts.	No. Enrolled.
Oyster Bay	12—13	1,037
Hempstead	14—15	968
North Hempstead	16	633
Jamaica	17	686
Flushing	18—19	916
Newtown	20—24	1,443
Total number enrolled		[illegible]

The counting for Queens commenced at 8½ o'clock, occupying about half an hour, which resulted in showing that the number of ballots to be deposited in the wheel tallied with the number enrolled. Out of this was to be drawn the requisite quota for the county, which amounted to 1,603.

The drawing was proceeded with immediately after the result of the counting was announced, and continued through the entire day until 6½ o'clock, without the least sign of disturbance on the part of those present. The spectators, who were yesterday in larger attendance than on any previous day, seemed to wear, as a general thing, more jovial countenances than those which thronged the different places of drafting in the city. An eagerness though to know their fate was plainly visible, and when any one of them was declared to be among the fortunate his name was received generally with laughter and applause.

Among those drafted were, Rev. R. G. HINSDALE, of Freeport; SEMAN SNEDIKER, Supervisor of Hempstead; JOHN S. SNEDIKER, of Jamaica, and WM. T. MCCOUN, Jr., a son of the Commissioner, WM. S. MCCOUN. The Messrs. SNEDIKER were among those who assisted in the counting of the ballots. One of the recorders were also drawn.

Col. NUGENT visited the headquarters of Capt. ROSS yesterday, about 2 P. M. Superintendent KENNEDY was also noticeable among those present in the morning.

After the drawing was completed three hearty cheers were given for the draft by the crowd present. The following is a correct list of those drafted in the First District:

The County Substitute and Relief Committee.

SUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE FUND.

This Committee were in session yesterday, as advertised, at No. 73 Duane-street. The printed certificates and affidavits for indigent drafted persons were ready for use, but those for the firemen, militiamen and policemen will not be ready till to-day. The applicants for aid of the Committee were not numerous, and nearly all of them had not yet passed the necessary medical examination and been accepted for service by the Enrolling Boards of their respective Districts. Five drafted persons having families to support, and who had passed examination and been accepted, made oath to these facts, and also that they were in indigent circumstances, and had been unable to procure substitutes. Upon these statements and affidavits, certificates will be awarded them for presentation to the Comptroller, who will attend to the payment of their commutation.

The Committee have a difficult point to consider and decide upon in respect to certain drafted policemen. The ordinance specifies that they must do duty and reside in the City to be exempted from the public fund. It appears that there are a number of policemen doing duty here who reside in Brooklyn, and have been drafted here. In some cases these men have been doing duty here for several years, all the while holding residences in Brooklyn, and absent from their families so much in the performance of their duties as only to be at home two days and two nights out of eight days and nights. Brooklyn not having made arrangements to exempt the policemen resident there, these men naturally look to this Committee to save them from the draft.

The Committee adopted resolutions requesting the Republican Central Committee and the Democratic General Committee of Tammany Hall to appoint one citizen from each Ward to attend to applications for exemption in their respective localities, giving information and instruction to the applicants and aiding the Committee in detecting any frauds or misrepresentations that may be attempted—the parties appointed by this request to meet the Committee at their rooms and confer with them on next Friday morning at 9 o'clock.

Subscriptions to the amount of $12,000 were made yesterday to the Relief Fund, making nearly $800,000 altogether.

THE ALL-SUFFICIENT THREE,
KNOWN AS
HELMBOLD'S
GENUINE
PREPARATIONS.

HELMBOLD'S GENUINE PREPARATION,
"HIGHLY CONCENTRATED"
COMPOUND FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,
A Positive and Specific Remedy
For Diseases of the BLADDER,
KIDNEYS,
GRAVEL,
DROPSICAL SWELLINGS,
And all Diseases and Derangements of the
URINARY ORGANS,
Whether existing in
MALE OR FEMALE.
Diseases of these Organs require the aid of a
DIURETIC,
HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
IS THE GREAT DIURETIC,
And is certain to have the desired effect in all Diseases
FOR WHICH IT IS RECOMMENDED.
This Medicine increases the power of Digestion, and excites the ABSORBENTS into healthy action, by which the WATERY or CALCAREOUS depositions, and all UNNATURAL ENLARGEMENTS are reduced, as well as PAIN and INFAMMATION, and is good for MEN, WOMEN OR CHILDREN.
Directions accompany
HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU.
For Weaknesses
Arising from Excesses,
Habits of Dissipation,
Early Indiscretion or Abuse,
ATTENDED WITH THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS:
Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power,
Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing,
Weak Nerves, Trembling,
Horror of Disease, Wakefulness,
Dimness of Vision, Pain in the Back,
Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System,
Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body,
Dryness of the Skin, Eruptions on the face,
PALLID COUNTENANCE,
HEAVINESS OF THE EYELIDS,
Frequently Black Spots flying before the EYES, with temporary Suffusion and Loss of Sight,
Want of Attention, Mobility,
Restlessness,
With Horror of Society.
Nothing is more desirable
TO SUCH PATIENTS THAN SOLITUDE, and nothing they more dread for FEAR OF THEMSELVES,
NO REPOSE OF MANNER, NO EARNESTNESS,
NO SPECULATION,
but a hurried TRANSITION from one question to another,
These symptoms, if allowed to go on, which this medicine invariably removes, soon follows
IMPOTENCY, FATUITY,
EPILEPTIC FITS,
IN ONE OF WHICH THE PATIENT MAY EXPIRE.
Who can say that they are not frequently followed by those DIREFUL DISEASES,
INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION?
Many are aware of the cause of their suffering,
BUT NONE WILL CONFESS,
THE RECORDS OF THE INSANE ASYLUMS
And the Melancholy Deaths by Consumption
BEAR AMPLE WITNESS TO THE TRUTH OF THE ASSERTION.
In Lunatic Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is actually sodden, and quite destitute, neither
MIRTH OR GRIEF EVER VISIT IT.
Should a sound of the voice occur, it is rarely articulate:
With woeful measures wan despair,
Low sullen sounds their grief beguile.
Parents and Guardians
Caution your children against this EVIL HABIT. It is the greatest curse that can befall
A YOUNG MAN OR WOMAN,
Unfitting them for Happiness and Married Life.
They may not experience the consequences now, but must and will SOONER OR LATER. The Constitution once affected with symptoms of
ORGANIC WEAKNESS,
Requires the aid of medicine to strengthen and
Invigorate the System,
Which HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU invariably does.
A TRIAL WILL CONVINCE THE MOST SKEPTICAL.

FEMALES—FEMALES—FEMALES,
OLD OR YOUNG, SINGLE, MARRIED, OR CONTEMPLATING MARRIAGE.
IN MANY AFFECTIONS PECULIAR TO FEMALES,
the Extract Buchu is unequaled by any other remedy, as in Chlorosis or Retention,
Irregularity, Painfulness,
Or Suppression of Customary Evacuations,
Ulcerated or Scirrhous state of the Uterus, Leucorrhœa or Whites, Sterility, and for all complaints incident to the sex, whether arising from Indiscretion, Habits of Dissipation, or in the DECLINE OR CHANGE OF LIFE.
SEE SYMPTOMS ABOVE.
NO FAMILY SHOULD BE WITHOUT IT!

TAKE NO MORE BALSAM, MERCURY, OR UNPLEASANT MEDICINE FOR UNPLEASANT AND DANGEROUS DISEASES.
CURES
SECRET DISEASES
In all their Stages. At little Expense:
Little or no change in Diet: No inconvenience,
And no Exposure.
It causes a frequent desire, and gives strength to urinate, thereby
Removing Obstructions,
Preventing and Curing Strictures of the Urethra,
Allaying Pain and Inflammation, so frequent in the class of diseases, and expelling all Poisonous, Diseased, and Worn-out Matter.
THOUSANDS UPON THOUSANDS WHO HAVE BEEN THE VICTIMS OF QUACKS,
and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they were deceived, and that the "POISON" has, by the use of "POWERFUL ASTRINGENTS," been dried up in the system, to break out in an aggravated form, and
PERHAPS AFTER MARRIAGE.

Use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU for all affections and diseases of the
URINARY ORGANS,
URINARY ORGANS,
URINARY ORGANS,

All the above diseases and symptoms admit of the same treatment, and may originate from the same cause.

And is generally attended with a discharge
MORE OR LESS OFFENSIVE,
AND, IF NEGLECTED,
DESTROYS WHATEVER PART
IT MAY ATTACK.
THIS DISEASE IS OFTEN TRANSMITTED TO CHILDREN: is contracted from the same cause, and often with GONORRHŒA, and both may exist at the same time. When such is the case
HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED COMPOUND FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA
